Act 1

Scene 1: Amalfi - The Presence-chamber in the Duchess's Palace

Enter ANTONIO and DELIO

Delio You are welcome to your country, dear Antonio;
You have been long in France, and you return
A very formal Frenchman in your habit:
How do you like the French court?

Antonio I admire it:
In seeking to reduce both state and people
To a fix'd order, their judicious king
Begins at home; quits first his royal palace
Of flattering sycophants, of dissolute
And infamous persons, - which he sweetly terms

His master's masterpiece, the work of heaven;
Considering duly that a prince's court
Is like a common fountain, whence should flow
Pure silver drops in general, but if 't chance
Some curs'd example poison 't near the head,
Death and diseases through the whole land spread.
And what is 't makes this blessed government
But a most provident council, who dare freely
Inform him the corruption of the times?
Though some o' the court hold it presumption
To instruct princes what they ought to do,
It is a noble duty to inform them
What they ought to foresee. - Here comes Bosola,
The only court-gall; yet I observe his railing
Is not for simple love of piety:
Indeed, he rails at those things which he wants;
Would be as lecherous, covetous, or proud,
Bloody, or envious, as any man,
If he had means to be so. - Here's the cardinal.

Enter Cardinal and Bosola

Bosola I do haunt you still.

Cardinal So.

Bosola I have done you better service than to be slighted thus. Miserable age, where only the reward of doing well is the doing of it!

Cardinal You enforce your merit too much.

Bosola I fell into the galleys in your service; where, for two years together, I wore two towels instead of a shirt, with a knot on the shoulder, after the fashion of a Roman mantle. Slighted thus! I will thrive some way: blackbirds fatten best in hard weather; why not I in these dog-days?

Cardinal Would you could become honest!

Bosola With all your divinity do but direct me the way to it. I have known many travel far for it, and yet return as arrant knaves as they went forth, because they carried themselves always along with them.

Exit Cardinal.

Are you gone? Some fellows, they say, are possessed with the devil, but this great fellow were able to possess the greatest devil, and make him worse.

Antonio He hath denied thee some suit?

Bosola He and his brother are like plum-trees that grow crooked over standing-pools; they are rich and o'er-laden with fruit, but none but crows, pies, and caterpillars feed on them. Could I be one of their flattering panders, I would hang on their ears like a horse-leech, till I were full, and then drop off. I pray, leave me. Who would rely upon these miserable dependencies, in expectation to be advanced to-morrow? what creature ever fed worse than hoping Tantalus? nor ever died any man more fearfully than he that hoped for a pardon. There are rewards for hawks and dogs when they have done us service; but for a soldier that hazards his limbs in a battle, nothing but a kind of geometry is his last supportation.

Delio Geometry!

Bosola Ay, to hang in a fair pair of slings, take his latter swing in the world upon an honourable pair of crutches, from hospital to hospital. Fare ye well, sir: and yet do not you scorn us; for places in the court are but like beds in the hospital, where this man's head lies at that man's foot, and so lower and lower.

Exit.

Delio I knew this fellow seven years in the galleys
For a notorious murder; and 'twas thought
The cardinal suborn'd it: he was releas'd
By the French general, Gaston de Foix,
When he recover'd Naples.

Antonio 'Tis great pity
He should be thus neglected: I have heard
He's very valiant. This foul melancholy
Will poison all his goodness; for, I'll tell you,
If too immoderate sleep be truly said
To be an inward rust unto the soul,
It then doth follow want of action
Breeds all black malcontents; and their close rearing,
Like moths in cloth, do hurt for want of wearing.

Delio The presence 'gins to fill: you promis'd me
To make me the partaker of the natures
Of some of your great courtiers.

Antonio The lord cardinal's,
And other strangers' that are now in court?
I shall. - Here comes the great Calabrian duke.

Enter FERDINAND, CASTRUCCIO, SILVIO, RODERIGO, GRISOLAN, and Attendants

Ferdinand Who took the ring oftenest?

Silvio Antonio Bologna, my lord.

Ferdinand Our sister duchess' great-master of her household? give him the jewel. - When shall we leave this sportive action, and fall to action indeed?

Castruchio Methinks, my lord, you should not desire to go to war in person.

Ferdinand Now for some gravity: why, my lord?

Castruchio It is fitting a soldier arise to be a prince, but not necessary a prince descend to be a captain.

Ferdinand No?

Castruchio No, my lord; he were far better do it by a deputy.

Ferdinand Why should he not as well sleep or eat by a deputy? this might take idle, offensive, and base office from him, whereas the other deprives him of honour.

Castruchio Believe my experience, that realm is never long in quiet where the ruler is a soldier.

Ferdinand Thou toldest me thy wife could not endure fighting.

Castruchio True, my lord.

Ferdinand And of a jest she broke of a captain she met full of wounds: I have forgot it.

Castruchio She told him, my lord, he was a pitiful fellow, to lie, like the children of Ishmael, all in tents.

Ferdinand Why, there's a wit were able to undo all the chirurgeons o' the city; for although gallants should quarrel, and had drawn their weapons, and were ready to go to it, yet her persuasions would make them put up.

Castruchio That she would, my lord. - How do you like my Spanish gennet?

Roderigo He is all fire.

Ferdinand I am of Pliny's opinion, I think he was begot by the wind; he runs as if he were ballasted with quicksilver.

Silvio True, my lord, he reels from the tilt often.

Roderigo &
Grisolan Ha, ha, ha!

Ferdinand Why do you laugh? methinks you that are courtiers should be my touchwood, take fire when I give fire; that is, laugh [but] when I laugh, were the subject never so witty.

Castruchio True, my lord: I myself have heard a very good jest, and have scorned to seem to have so silly a wit as to understand it.

Ferdinand But I can laugh at your fool, my lord.

Castruchio He cannot speak, you know, but he makes faces: my lady cannot abide him.

Ferdinand No?

Castruchio Nor endure to be in merry company; for she says too much laughing, and too much company, fills her too full of the wrinkle.

Ferdinand I would, then, have a mathematical instrument made for her face, that she might not laugh out of compass. - I shall shortly visit you at Milan, Lord Silvio.

Silvio Your grace shall arrive most welcome.

Ferdinand You are a good horseman, Antonio: you have excellent riders in France: what do you think of good horsemanship?

Antonio Nobly, my lord: as out of the Grecian horse issued many famous princes, so out of brave horsemanship arise the first sparks of growing resolution, that raise the mind to noble action.

Ferdinand You have bespoke it worthily.

Silvio Your brother, the lord cardinal, and sister duchess.

Re-enter CARDINAL, with DUCHESS, CARIOLA, and JULIA

Cardinal Are the galleys come about?

Grisolan They are, my lord.

Ferdinand Here's the Lord Silvio is come to take his leave.

Delio Now, sir, your promise: what's that cardinal?
I mean his temper? they say he's a brave fellow,
Will play his five thousand crowns at tennis, dance,
Court ladies, and one that hath fought single combats.

Antonio Some such flashes superficially hang on him for form; but observe his inward character: he is a melancholy churchman; the spring in his face is nothing but the engendering of toads; where he is jealous of any man, he lays worse plots for them than ever was imposed on Hercules, for he strews in his way flatterers, panders, intelligencers, atheists, and a thousand such political monsters. He should have been Pope; but instead of coming to it by the primitive decency of the Church, he did bestow bribes so largely and so impudently as if he would have carried it away without Heaven's knowledge. Some good he hath done -

Delio You have given too much of him. What's his brother?

Antonio The duke there? a most perverse and turbulent nature:
What appears in him mirth is merely outside;
If he laugh heartily, it is to laugh
All honesty out of fashion.

Delio Twins?

Antonio In quality.
He speaks with others' tongues, and hears men's suits
With others' ears; will seem to sleep o' the bench
Only to entrap offenders in their answers;
Dooms men to death by information;
Rewards by hearsay.

Delio Then the law to him
Is like a foul black cobweb to a spider, -
He makes it his dwelling and a prison
To entangle those shall feed him.

Antonio Most true:
He never pays debts unless they be shrewd turns,
And those he will confess that he doth owe.
Last, for his brother there, the cardinal,
They that do flatter him most say oracles
Hang at his lips; and verily I believe them,
For the devil speaks in them.
But for their sister, the right noble duchess,
You never fix'd your eye on three fair medals
Cast in one figure, of so different temper.
For her discourse, it is so full of rapture,
You only will begin then to be sorry
When she doth end her speech, and wish, in wonder,
She held it less vain-glory to talk much,
Than your penance to hear her: whilst she speaks,
She throws upon a man so sweet a look,
That it were able to raise one to a galliard
That lay in a dead palsy, and to dote
On that sweet countenance; but in that look
There speaketh so divine a continence
As cuts off all lascivious and vain hope.
Her days are practis'd in such noble virtue,
That sure her nights, nay, more, her very sleeps,
Are more in heaven than other ladies' shrifts.

Let all sweet ladies break their flattering glasses,
And dress themselves in her.

Delio Fie, Antonio,
You play the wire-drawer with her commendations.

Antonio I'll case the picture up: only thus much;
All her particular worth grows to this sum, -
She stains the time past, lights the time to come.

Cariola You must attend my lady in the gallery,
Some half an hour hence.

Antonio I shall.

Exeunt Antonio and Delio.

Ferdinand Sister, I have a suit to you.

Duchess To me, sir?

Ferdinand A gentleman here, Daniel de Bosola,
One that was in the galleys

Duchess Yes, I know him.

Ferdinand A worthy fellow he is: pray, let me entreat for
The provisorship of your horse.

Duchess Your knowledge of him
Commends him and prefers him.

Ferdinand Call him hither.

Exit Attendant.

We [are] now upon parting. Good Lord Silvio,
Do us commend to all our noble friends
At the leaguer.

Silvio Sir, I shall.

Ferdinand You are for Milan?

Silvio I am.

Duchess Bring the caroches. - We'll bring you down
To the haven.

Exeunt DUCHESS, SILVIO, CASTRUCCIO, RODERIGO, GRISOLAN, CARIOLA, JULIA, and Attendants.

Cardinal Be sure you entertain that Bosola
For your intelligence: I would not be seen in 't;
And therefore many times I have slighted him
When he did court our furtherance as this morning.

Ferdinand Antonio, the great-master of her household,
Had been far fitter.

Cardinal You are deceiv'd in him:
His nature is too honest for such business. -
He comes: I'll leave you.

Exit.

Re-enter BOSOLA

Bosola I was lur'd to you.

Ferdinand My brother, here, the cardinal could never Abide you.

Bosola Never since he was in my debt.

Ferdinand May be some oblique character in your face
Made him suspect you.

Bosola Doth he study physiognomy?
There's no more credit to be given to the face
Than to a sick man's urine, which some call
The physician's whore because she cozens him.
He did suspect me wrongfully.

Ferdinand For that
You must give great men leave to take their times.
Distrust doth cause us seldom be deceiv'd:
You see the oft shaking of the cedar-tree
Fastens it more at root.

Bosola Yet, take heed;
For to suspect a friend unworthily
Instructs him the next way to suspect you,
And prompts him to deceive you.

Ferdinand There's gold.

Bosola So:
What follows? never rain'd such showers as these Without thunderbolts i' the tail of them: whose throat must

I cut?

Ferdinand Your inclination to shed blood rides post
Before my occasion to use you. I give you that
To live i' the court here, and observe the duchess;
To note all the particulars of her haviour,
What suitors do solicit her for marriage,
And whom she best affects. She's a young widow:
I would not have her marry again.

Bosola No, sir?

Ferdinand Do not you ask the reason; but be satisfied
I say I would not.

Bosola It seems you would create me
One of your familiars.

Ferdinand Familiar? what's that?

Bosola Why, a very quaint invisible devil in flesh, -
An intelligencer.

Ferdinand Such a kind of thriving thing
I would wish thee; and ere long thou mayst arrive
At a higher place by 't.

Bosola Take your devils,
Which hell calls angels: these curs'd gifts would make
You a corrupter, me an impudent traitor;
And should I take these, they'd take me [to] hell.

Ferdinand Sir, I'll take nothing from you that I have given:
There is a place that I procur'd for you
This morning, the provisorship o' the horse;
Have you heard on 't?

Bosola No.

Ferdinand 'Tis yours: is 't not worth thanks?

Bosola I would have you curse yourself now, that your bounty
(Which makes men truly noble) e'er should make me
A villain. Oh, that to avoid ingratitude
For the good deed you have done me, I must do
All the ill man can invent! Thus the devil
Candies all sins o'er; and what heaven terms vile,
That names he complimentary.

Ferdinand Be yourself;

Keep your old garb of melancholy; 'twill express
You envy those that stand above your reach,
Yet strive not to come near 'em: this will gain
Access to private lodgings, where yourself
May, like a politic dormouse -

Bosola As I have seen some Feed in a lord's dish, half asleep, not seeming
To listen to any talk; and yet these rogues
Have cut his throat in a dream. What's my place?
The provisorship o' the horse? say, then, my corruption
Grew out of horse-dung: I am your creature.

Ferdinand Away!

Exit

Bosola Let good men, for good deeds, covet good fame,
Since place and riches oft are bribes of shame:
Sometimes the devil doth preach.

Exit.

Re-enter DUCHESS, CARDINAL, and CARIOLA

Cardinal We are to part from you; and your own discretion
Must now be your director.

Ferdinand You are a widow:
You know already what man is; and therefore
Let not youth, high promotion, eloquence -

Cardinal No,
Nor anything without the addition, honour,
Sway your high blood.

Ferdinand Marry! they are most luxurious
Will wed twice.

Cardinal Oh, fie!

Ferdinand Their livers are more spotted Than Laban's sheep.

Duchess Diamonds are of most value,
They say, that have pass'd through most jewellers' hands.

Ferdinand Whores by that rule are precious.

Duchess Will you hear me?
I'll never marry.

Cardinal So most widows say;
But commonly that motion lasts no longer
Than the turning of an hour-glass: the funeral sermon
And it end both together.

Ferdinand Now hear me:
You live in a rank pasture, here, i' the court:
There is a kind of honey-dew that's deadly;
'Twill poison your fame; look to 't: be not cunning;
For they whose faces do belie their hearts
Are witches ere they arrive at twenty years,
Ay, and give the devil suck.

Duchess This is terrible good counsel.

Ferdinand Hypocrisy is woven of a fine small thread,
Subtler than Vulcan's engine: yet, believe 't,
Your darkest actions, nay, your privat'st thoughts,
Will come to light.

Cardinal You may flatter yourself,
And take your own choice; privately be married
Under the eves of night -

Ferdinand Think 't the best voyage
That e'er you made; like the irregular crab,
Which, though 't goes backward, thinks that it goes right
Because it goes its own way: but observe,
Such weddings may more properly be said
To be executed than celebrated.

Cardinal The marriage night
Is the entrance into some prison.

Ferdinand And those joys,
Those lustful pleasures, are like heavy sleeps
Which do forerun man's mischief.

Cardinal Fare you well.
Wisdom begins at the end: remember it.

Exit.

Duchess I think this speech between you both was studied,
It came so roundly off.

Ferdinand You are my sister;
This was my father's poniard, do you see?
I'd be loth to see 't look rusty, 'cause 'twas his.
I would have you give o'er these chargeable revels:

A visor and a mask are whispering-rooms
That were never built for goodness; - fare ye well; -
And women like that part which, like the lamprey,
Hath never a bone in 't.

Duchess Fie, sir!

Ferdinand Nay,
I mean the tongue; variety of courtship:
What cannot a neat knave with a smooth tale
Make a woman believe? Farewell, lusty widow.

Exit

Duchess Shall this move me? If all my royal kindred
Lay in my way unto this marriage,
I 'd make them my low footsteps: and even now,
Even in this hate, as men in some great battles,
By apprehending danger, have achiev'd
Almost impossible actions (I have heard soldiers say so),
So I through frights and threatenings will assay
This dangerous venture. Let old wives report
I wink'd and chose a husband. - Cariola,
To thy known secrecy I have given up
More than my life, - my fame.

Cariola Both shall be safe;
For I'll conceal this secret from the world
As warily as those that trade in poison
Keep poison from their children.

Duchess Thy protestation
Is ingenious and hearty: I believe it.
Is Antonio come?

Cariola He attends you.

Duchess Good dear soul,
Leave me; but place thyself behind the arras,
Where thou mayst overhear us. Wish me good speed;
For I am going into a wilderness
Where I shall find nor path nor friendly clue
To be my guide.

Cariola goes behind the arras.

Enter Antonio

I sent for you: sit down;
Take pen and ink, and write: are you ready?

Antonio Yes.

Duchess What did I say?

Antonio That I should write somewhat.

Duchess Oh, I remember.
After these triumphs and this large expense,
It's fit, like thrifty husbands, we inquire
What's laid up for tomorrow.

Antonio So please your beauteous excellence.

Duchess Beauteous!
Indeed, I thank you: I look young for your sake;
You have ta'en my cares upon you.

Antonio I'll fetch your grace
The particulars of your revenue and expense.

Duchess Oh, you are an upright treasurer: but you mistook:
For when I said I meant to make inquiry
What's laid up for tomorrow, I did mean
What's laid up yonder for me.

Antonio Where?

Duchess In heaven.
I am making my will (as 'tis fit princes should,
In perfect memory), and, I pray, sir, tell me,
Were not one better make it smiling, thus,
Than in deep groans and terrible ghastly looks,
As if the gifts we parted with procur'd
That violent distraction?

Antonio Oh, much better.

Duchess If I had a husband now, this care were quit:
But I intend to make you overseer.
What good deed shall we first remember? say.

Antonio Begin with that first good deed began i' the world
After man's creation, the sacrament of marriage:
I'd have you first provide for a good husband;
Give him all.

Duchess All!

Antonio Yes, your excellent self.

Duchess In a winding-sheet?

Antonio In a couple.

Duchess Saint Winifred,
That were a strange will!

Antonio 'Twere stranger if there were no will in you
To marry again.

Duchess What do you think of marriage?

Antonio I take 't, as those that deny purgatory,
It locally contains or heaven or hell;
There's no third place in 't.

Duchess How do you affect it?

Antonio My banishment, feeding my melancholy,
Would often reason thus.

Duchess Pray, let's hear it.

Antonio Say a man never marry, nor have children,
What takes that from him? only the bare name
Of being a father, or the weak delight
To see the little wanton ride a-cock-horse
Upon a painted stick, or hear him chatter
Like a taught starling.

Duchess Fie, fie, what's all this?
One of your eyes is bloodshot, use my ring to 't,
They say 'tis very sovereign: 'twas my wedding-ring,
And I did vow never to part with it
But to my second husband.

Antonio You have parted with it now.

Duchess Yes, to help your eyesight.

Antonio You have made me stark blind.

Duchess How?

Antonio There is a saucy and ambitious devil
Is dancing in this circle.

Duchess Remove him.

Antonio How?

Duchess There needs small conjuration, when your finger
May do it: thus; is it fit?

She puts the ring upon his finger: he kneels.

Antonio What said you?

Duchess Sir,
This goodly roof of yours is too low built;
I cannot stand upright in 't nor discourse,
Without I raise it higher: raise yourself;
Or, if you please, my hand to help you: so.

Raises him.

Antonio Ambition, madam, is a great man's madness,
That is not kept in chains and close-pent rooms,
But in fair lightsome lodgings, and is girt
With the wild noise of prattling visitants,
Which makes it lunatic beyond all cure.
Conceive not I am so stupid but I aim
Whereto your favours tend: but he's a fool
That, being a-cold, would thrust his hands i' the fire
To warm them.

Duchess So, now the ground's broke,
You may discover what a wealthy mine
I make you lord of.

Antonio Oh, my unworthiness!

Duchess You were ill to sell yourself:
This darkening of your worth is not like that
Which tradesmen use i' the city; their false lights
Are to rid bad wares off: and I must tell you,
If you will know where breathes a complete man
(I speak it without flattery), turn your eyes,
And progress through yourself.

Antonio Were there nor heaven nor hell,
I should be honest: I have long serv'd virtue,
And ne'er ta'en wages of her.

Duchess Now she pays it.
The misery of us that are born great!
We are forc'd to woo, because none dare woo us;
And as a tyrant doubles with his words,
And fearfully equivocates, so we
Are forc'd to express our violent passions
In riddles and in dreams, and leave the path

Of simple virtue, which was never made
To seem the thing it is not. Go, go brag
You have left me heartless; mine is in your bosom:
I hope 'twill multiply love there. You do tremble:
Make not your heart so dead a piece of flesh,
To fear more than to love me. Sir, be confident:
What is 't distracts you? This is flesh and blood, sir;
'Tis not the figure cut in alabaster
Kneels at my husband's tomb. Awake, awake, man!
I do here put off all vain ceremony,
And only do appear to you a young widow
That claims you for her husband, and, like a widow,
I use but half a blush in 't.

Antonio Truth speak for me;
I will remain the constant sanctuary
Of your good name.

Duchess I thank you, gentle love:
And 'cause you shall not come to me in debt,
Being now my steward, here upon your lips
I sign your Quietus est. This you should have begg'd now:
I have seen children oft eat sweetmeats thus,
As fearful to devour them too soon.

Antonio But for your brothers?

Duchess Do not think of them:
All discord without this circumference
Is only to be pitied, and not fear'd:
Yet, should they know it, time will easily
Scatter the tempest.

Antonio These words should be mine,
And all the parts you have spoke, if some part of it
Would not have savour'd flattery.

Duchess Kneel.

Cariola comes from behind the arras.

Antonio Ha!

Duchess Be not amaz'd; this woman's of my counsel:
I have heard lawyers say, a contract in a chamber
Per verba [de] presenti is absolute marriage.

She and Antonio kneel.

Bless, Heaven, this sacred gordian, which let violence

Never untwine!

Antonio And may our sweet affections, like the spheres,
Be still in motion!

Duchess Quickening, and make
The like soft music!

Antonio That we may imitate the loving palms,
Best emblem of a peaceful marriage,
That never bore fruit, divided!

Duchess What can the Church force more?

Antonio That fortune may not know an accident,
Either of joy or sorrow, to divide
Our fixed wishes!

Duchess How can the Church build faster?
We now are man and wife, and 'tis the church
That must but echo this. - Maid, stand apart:
I now am blind.

Antonio What's your conceit in this?

Duchess I would have you lead your fortune by the hand
Unto your marriage-bed:
(You speak in me this, for we now are one:)
We'll only lie, and talk together, and plot
To appease my humorous kindred; and if you please,
Like the old tale in Alexander and Lodowick,
Lay a naked sword between us, keep us chaste.
Oh, let me shroud my blushes in your bosom,
Since 'tis the treasury of all my secrets!

Exeunt Duchess and Antonio.

Cariola Whether the spirit of greatness or of woman
Reign most in her, I know not; but it shows
A fearful madness: I owe her much of pity.

Exit.

Act 2

Scene 1: A Room in the Palace of the Duchess

Enter BOSOLA and CASTRUCCIO

Bosola You say you would fain be taken for an eminent courtier?

Castruchio 'Tis the very main of my ambition.

Bosola Let me see: you have a reasonable good face for 't already, and your night-cap expresses your ears sufficient largely. I would have you learn to twirl the strings of your band with a good grace, and in a set speech, at the end of every sentence, to hum three or four times, or blow your nose till it smart again, to recover your memory. When you come to be a president in criminal causes, if you smile upon a prisoner, hang him; but if you frown upon him and threaten him, let him be sure to scape the gallows.

Castruchio I would be a very merry president.

Bosola Do not sup o' nights; 'twill beget you an admirable wit.

Castruchio Rather it would make me have a good stomach to quarrel; for they say, your roaring boys eat meat seldom, and that makes them so valiant. But how shall I know whether the people take me for an eminent fellow?

Bosola I will teach a trick to know it: give out you lie a-dying, and if you hear the common people curse you, be sure you are taken for one of the prime night-caps.

Enter an Old Lady.

You come from painting now.

Old Lady From what?

Bosola Why, from your scurvy face-physic. To behold thee not painted inclines somewhat near a miracle: these in thy face here were deep ruts and foul sloughs the last progress. There was a lady in France that, having had the smallpox, flayed the skin off her face to make it more level; and whereas before she looked like a nutmeg-grater, after she resembled an abortive hedgehog.

Old Lady Do you call this painting?

Bosola No, no, but you call [it] careening of an old morphewed lady, to make her disembugue again: there's rough-cast phrase to your plastic.

Old Lady It seems you are well acquainted with my closet.

Bosola One would suspect it for a shop of witchcraft, to find in it the fat of serpents, spawn of snakes, Jews' spittle, and their young children's ordure; and all these for the face. I would sooner eat a dead pigeon taken from the soles of the feet of one sick of the plague, than kiss one of you fasting. Here are two of you, whose sin of your youth is the very patrimony of the physician; makes him renew his foot-cloth with the spring, and change his high-priced courtesan with the fall of the leaf. I do wonder you do not loathe yourselves. Observe my meditation now.

What thing is in this outward form of man
To be belov'd? We account it ominous,
If nature do produce a colt, or lamb,
A fawn, or goat, in any limb resembling
A man, and fly from 't as a prodigy:
Man stands amaz'd to see his deformity
In any other creature but himself.
But in our own flesh though we bear diseases
Which have their true names only ta'en from beasts, -
As the most ulcerous wolf and swinish measles, -
Though we are eaten up of lice and worms,
And though continually we bear about us
A rotten and dead body, we delight
To hide it in rich tissue: all our fear,
Nay, all our terror, is, lest our physician
Should put us in the ground to be made sweet. -
Your wife's gone to Rome: you two couple, and get you to the wells at Lucca to recover your aches. I have other work on foot.

Exeunt CASTRUCCIO and OLD LADY.

I observe our duchess
Is sick a-days, she pukes, her stomach seethes,
The fins of her eyelids look most teeming blue,
She wanes i' the cheek, and waxes fat i' the flank,
And, contrary to our Italian fashion,
Wears a loose-bodied gown: there's somewhat in 't.
I have a trick may chance discover it,
A pretty one; I have bought some apricots,
The first our spring yields.

Enter ANTONIO and DELIO

Delio And so long since married!
You amaze me.

Antonio Let me seal your lips for ever:
For did I think that anything but the air
Could carry these words from you, I should wish
You had no breath at all. - Now, sir, in your contemplation?
You are studying to become a great wise fellow.

Bosola Oh, sir, the opinion of wisdom is a foul tetter that runs all over a man's body: if simplicity direct us to have no evil, it directs us to a happy being; for the subtlest folly proceeds from the subtlest wisdom: let me be simply honest.

Antonio I do understand your inside.

Bosola Do you so?

Antonio Because you would not seem to appear to the world
Puff'd up with your preferment, you continue
This out-of-fashion melancholy: leave it, leave it.

Bosola Give me leave to be honest in any phrase, in any compliment whatsoever. Shall I confess myself to you? I look no higher than I can reach: they are the gods that must ride on winged horses. A lawyer's mule of a slow pace will both suit my disposition and business; for, mark me, when a man's mind rides faster than his horse can gallop, they quickly both tire.

Antonio You would look up to heaven, but I think
The devil, that rules i' the air, stands in your light.

Bosola Oh, sir, you are lord of the ascendant, chief man with the duchess;
a duke was your cousin-german removed. Say you were lineally descended from King Pepin, or he himself, what of this? search the heads of the greatest rivers in the world, you shall find them but bubbles of water. Some would think the souls of princes were brought forth by some more weighty cause than those of meaner persons: they are deceived, there's the same hand to them; the like passions sway them; the same reason that makes a vicar to go to law for a tithe-pig and undo his neighbours, makes them spoil a whole province, and batter down goodly cities with the cannon.

Enter DUCHESS and LADIES

Duchess Your arm, Antonio: do I not grow fat?
I am exceeding short-winded. - Bosola,
I would have you, sir, provide for me a litter;
Such a one as the Duchess of Florence rode in.

Bosola The duchess us'd one when she was great with child.

Duchess I think she did. - Come hither, mend my ruff:
Here, when? thou art such a tedious lady; and
Thy breath smells of lemon-pills: would thou hadst done!
Shall I swoon under thy fingers? I am
So troubled with the mother!

Bosola [Aside.] I fear too much.

Duchess I have heard you say that the French courtiers
Wear their hats on 'fore the king.

Antonio I have seen it.

Duchess In the presence?

Antonio Yes.

Duchess Why should not we bring up that fashion?
'Tis ceremony more than duty that consists
In the removing of a piece of felt:
Be you the example to the rest o' the court;
Put on your hat first.

Antonio You must pardon me:
I have seen, in colder countries than in France,
Nobles stand bare to the prince; and the distinction
Methought show'd reverently.

Bosola I have a present for your grace.

Duchess For me, sir?

Bosola Apricots, madam.

Duchess Oh, sir, where are they?
I have heard of none to-year.

Bosola [Aside.] Good; her colour rises.

Duchess Indeed, I thank you: they are wondrous fair ones.
What an unskilful fellow is our gardener!
We shall have none this month.

Bosola Will not your grace pare them?

Duchess No: they taste of musk, methinks; indeed they do.

Bosola I know not: yet I wish your grace had par'd 'em.

Duchess Why?

Bosola I forgot to tell you, the knave gardener,
Only to raise his profit by them the sooner,
Did ripen them in horse-dung.

Duchess Oh, you jest. -
You shall judge: pray taste one.

Antonio Indeed, madam,
I do not love the fruit.

Duchess Sir, you are loth
To rob us of our dainties: 'tis a delicate fruit;
They say they are restorative.

Bosola 'Tis a pretty art,

Thus grafting.

Duchess 'Tis so; bettering of nature.

Bosola To make a pippin grow upon a crab,
A damson on a blackthorn. - [Aside.] How greedily she eats them!

A whirlwind strike off these bawd farthingales!
For, but for that and the loose-bodied gown,
I should have discover'd apparently
The young springal cutting a caper in her belly.

Duchess I thank you, Bosola: they were right good ones,
If they do not make me sick.

Antonio How now, madam?

Duchess This green fruit and my stomach are not friends:
How they swell me!

Bosola [Aside.] Nay, you are too much swell'd already.

Duchess Oh, I am in an extreme cold sweat!

Bosola I am very sorry.

Duchess Lights to my chamber! - Oh, good Antonio,
I fear I am undone!

Delio Lights there, lights!

Exeunt Duchess and Ladies.
Exit, on the other side Bosola.

Antonio Oh, my most trusty Delio, we are lost!
I fear she's fall'n in labour; and there's left
No time for her remove.

Delio Have you prepar'd
Those ladies to attend her? and procur'd
That politic safe conveyance for the midwife
Your duchess plotted?

Antonio I have.

Delio Make use, then, of this forc'd occasion:
Give out that Bosola hath poison'd her
With these apricots; that will give some colour
For her keeping close.

Antonio Fie, fie, the physicians

Will then flock to her.

Delio For that you may pretend
She'll use some prepar'd antidote of her own,
Lest the physicians should re-poison her.

Antonio I am lost in amazement: I know not what to think on 't.

Exeunt.

Scene 2: A Hall in the same Palace

Enter Bosola

Bosola So, so, there's no question but her tetchiness and most vulturous eating of the apricots are apparent signs of breeding.

Enter an Old Lady.

Now?

Old Lady I am in haste, sir.

Bosola There was a young waiting-woman had a monstrous desire to see the glass-house

Old Lady Nay, pray, let me go.

Bosola And it was only to know what strange instrument it was should swell up a glass to the fashion of a woman's belly.

Old Lady I will hear no more of the glass-house. You are still abusing women?

Bosola Who, I? no; only, by the way now and then, mention your frailties. The orange-tree bears ripe and green fruit and blossoms all together; and some of you give entertainment for pure love, but more for more precious reward. The lusty spring smells well; but drooping autumn tastes well. If we have the same golden showers that rained in the time of Jupiter the thunderer, you have the same Danaes still, to hold up their laps to receive them. Didst thou never study the mathematics?

Old Lady What's that, sir?

Bosola Why, to know the trick how to make a many lines meet in one centre. Go, go, give your foster-daughters good counsel: tell them that the devil takes delight to hang at a woman's girdle, like a false rusty watch, that she cannot discern how the time passes.

Exit OLD LADY.

Enter ANTONIO, RODERIGO, and GRISOLAN

Antonio Shut up the court-gates.

Roderigo Why, sir? what's the danger?

Antonio Shut up the posterns presently, and call
All the officers o' the court.

Grisolan I shall instantly.

Exit.

Antonio Who keeps the key o' the park-gate?

Roderigo Forobosco.

Antonio Let him bring 't presently.

Re-enter GRISOLAN with SERVANTS

1st Servant Oh, gentlemen o' the court, the foulest treason!

Bosola [Aside.] If that these apricots should be poison'd now,
Without my knowledge!

1st Servant There was taken even now a Switzer in the duchess' bedchamber -

2nd Servant A Switzer!

1st Servant With a pistol in his great cod-piece.

Bosola Ha, ha, ha!

1st Servant The cod-piece was the case for 't.

2nd Servant There was a cunning traitor: who would have searched his cod-piece?

1st Servant True, if he had kept out of the ladies' chambers: and all the moulds of his buttons were leaden bullets.

2nd Servant O wicked cannibal! a fire-lock in's cod-piece!

1st Servant 'Twas a French plot, upon my life.

2nd Servant To see what the devil can do!

Antonio [Are] all the officers here?

Servants We are.

Antonio Gentlemen,
We have lost much plate you know; and but this evening
Jewels, to the value of four thousand ducats,
Are missing in the duchess' cabinet.
Are the gates shut?

Servants Yes.

Antonio 'Tis the duchess' pleasure
Each officer be lock'd into his chamber
Till the sun-rising; and to send the keys
Of all their chests and of their outward doors
Into her bedchamber. She is very sick.

Roderigo At her pleasure.

Antonio She entreats you take 't not ill; the innocent
Shall be the more approv'd by it.

Bosola Gentleman o' the wood-yard, where's your Switzer now?

1st Servant By this hand, 'twas credibly reported by one o' the black guard.

Exeunt all except ANTONIO and DELIO.

Delio How fares it with the duchess?

Antonio She's expos'd
Unto the worst of torture, pain and fear.

Delio Speak to her all happy comfort.

Antonio How I do play the fool with mine own danger!
You are this night, dear friend, to post to Rome:
My life lies in your service.

Delio Do not doubt me.

Antonio Oh, 'tis far from me: and yet fear presents me
Somewhat that looks like danger.

Delio Believe it,
'Tis but the shadow of your fear, no more:
How superstitiously we mind our evils!
The throwing down salt, or crossing of a hare,
Bleeding at nose, the stumbling of a horse,
Or singing of a cricket, are of power
To daunt whole man in us. Sir, fare you well:
I wish you all the joys of a bless'd father;

And, for my faith, lay this unto your breast, -
Old friends, like old swords, still are trusted best.

Exit.

Enter CARIOLA

Cariola Sir, you are the happy father of a son:
Your wife commends him to you.

Antonio Blessed comfort! -
For heaven' sake tend her well: I'll presently
Go set a figure for's nativity.

Exeunt.

Scene 3

Enter BOSOLA, with a dark lantern

Bosola Sure I did hear a woman shriek: list, ha!
And the sound came, if I receiv'd it right,
From the duchess' lodgings. There's some stratagem
In the confining all our courtiers
To their several wards: I must have part of it;
My intelligence will freeze else. List, again!
It may be 'twas the melancholy bird,
Best friend of silence and of solitariness,
The owl, that scream'd so. - Ha! Antonio!

Enter ANTONIO

Antonio I heard some noise. - Who's there? what art thou? speak.

Bosola Antonio, put not your face nor body
To such a forc'd expression of fear:
I am Bosola, your friend.

Antonio Bosola! -
[Aside.] This mole does undermine me. - Heard you not
A noise even now?

Bosola From whence?

Antonio From the duchess' lodging.

Bosola Not I: did you?

Antonio I did, or else I dream'd.

Bosola Let's walk towards it.

Antonio No: it may be 'twas
But the rising of the wind.

Bosola Very likely.
Methinks 'tis very cold, and yet you sweat:
You look wildly.

Antonio I have been setting a figure
For the duchess' jewels.

Bosola Ah, and how falls your question?
Do you find it radical?

Antonio What's that to you?
'Tis rather to be question'd what design,
When all men were commanded to their lodgings,
Makes you a night-walker.

Bosola In sooth, I'll tell you:
Now all the court's asleep, I thought the devil
Had least to do here; I came to say my prayers;
And if it do offend you I do so,
You are a fine courtier.

Antonio [Aside.] This fellow will undo me. -
You gave the duchess apricots to-day:
Pray heaven they were not poison'd!

Bosola Poison'd! a Spanish fig
For the imputation.

Antonio Traitors are ever confident
Till they are discover'd. There were jewels stol'n too.
In my conceit, none are to be suspected
More than yourself.

Bosola You are a false steward.

Antonio Saucy slave, I'll pull thee up by the roots.

Bosola Maybe the ruin will crush you to pieces.

Antonio You are an impudent snake indeed, sir:
Are you scarce warm, and do you show your sting?
You libel well, sir.

Bosola No, sir: copy it out,
And I will set my hand to 't.

Antonio [Aside.] My nose bleeds.

One that were superstitious would count
This ominous, when it merely comes by chance:
Two letters, that are wrote here for my name,
Are drown'd in blood!
Mere accident. - For you, sir, I'll take order
I' the morn you shall be safe: - [Aside.] 'tis that must colour
Her lying-in: - sir, this door you pass not:
I do not hold it fit that you come near
The duchess' lodgings, till you have quit yourself. -
[Aside.] The great are like the base, nay, they are the same,
When they seek shameful ways to avoid shame.

Exit.

Bosola Antonio hereabout did drop a paper:
Some of your help, false friend: - Oh, here it is.
What's here? a child's nativity calculated!

[Reads.]

"The duchess was delivered of a son, 'tween the hours twelve and one in the night, Anno Dom. 1504", - that's this year - "decimo nono Decembris," - that's this night, - "taken according to the meridian of Malfi," - that's our duchess: happy discovery! - "The lord of the first house being combust in the ascendant, signifies short life; and Mars being in a human sign, joined to the tail of the Dragon, in the eighth house, doth threaten a violent death. Caetera non scrutantur."

Why, now 'tis most apparent: this precise fellow
Is the duchess' bawd: - I have it to my wish!
This is a parcel of intelligency
Our courtiers were cas'd up for: it needs must follow
That I must be committed on pretence
Of poisoning her: which I'll endure, and laugh at.
If one could find the father now! but that
Time will discover. Old Castruccio
I' the morning posts to Rome: by him I'll send
A letter that shall make her brothers' galls
O'erflow their livers. This was a thrifty way.
Though lust do mask in ne'er so strange disguise,
She's oft found witty, but is never wise.

Exit.

Scene 4

Enter CARDINAL and JULIA

Cardinal Sit: thou art my best of wishes. Prithee, tell me

What trick didst thou invent to come to Rome
Without thy husband?

Julia Why, my lord, I told him
I came to visit an old anchorite
Here for devotion.

Cardinal Thou art a witty false one, -
I mean, to him.

Julia You have prevail'd with me
Beyond my strongest thoughts: I would not now
Find you inconstant.

Cardinal Do not put thyself
To such a voluntary torture, which proceeds
Out of your own guilt.

Julia How, my lord!

Cardinal You fear
My constancy, because you have approv'd
Those giddy and wild turnings in yourself.

Julia Did you e'er find them?

Cardinal Sooth, generally for women,
A man might strive to make glass malleable,
Ere he should make them fixed.

Julia So, my lord.

Cardinal We had need go borrow that fantastic glass
Invented by Galileo the Florentine
To view another spacious world i' the moon,
And look to find a constant woman there.

Julia This is very well, my lord.

Cardinal Why do you weep?
Are tears your justification? the selfsame tears
Will fall into your husband's bosom, lady,
With a loud protestation that you love him
Above the world. Come, I'll love you wisely,
That's jealousy; since I am very certain
You cannot make me cuckold.

Julia I'll go home
To my husband.

Cardinal You may thank me, lady,
I have taken you off your melancholy perch,
Bore you upon my fist, and show'd you game,
And let you fly at it. - I pray thee, kiss me. -
When thou wast with thy husband, thou wast watch'd
Like a tame elephant: - still you are to thank me: -
Thou hadst only kisses from him and high feeding:
But what delight was that? 'twas just like one
That hath a little fingering on the lute,
Yet cannot tune it: - still you are to thank me.

Julia You told me of a piteous wound i' the heart
And a sick liver, when you woo'd me first,
And spake like one in physic.

Cardinal Who's that? -

Enter SERVANT

Rest firm, for my affection to thee,
Lightning moves slow to 't.

Servant Madam, a gentleman,
That's come post from Malfi, desires to see you.

Cardinal Let him enter. I'll withdraw.

Exit.

Servant He says
Your husband, old Castruccio, is come to Rome,
Most pitifully tir'd with riding post.

Exit.

Enter DELIO

Julia [Aside.] Signior Delio! 'tis one of my old suitors.

Delio I was bold to come and see you.

Julia Sir, you are welcome.

Delio Do you lie here?

Julia Sure, your own experience
Will satisfy you no: our Roman prelates
Do not keep lodging for ladies.

Delio Very well:
I have brought you no commendations from your husband,

For I know none by him.

Julia I hear he's come to Rome.

Delio I never knew man and beast, of a horse and a knight,
So weary of each other: if he had had a good back,
He would have undertook to have borne his horse,
His breech was so pitifully sore.

Julia Your laughter
Is my pity.

Delio Lady, I know not whether
You want money, but I have brought you some.

Julia From my husband?

Delio No, from mine own allowance.

Julia I must hear the condition, ere I be bound to take it.

Delio Look on 't, 'tis gold: hath it not a fine colour?

Julia I have a bird more beautiful.

Delio Try the sound on 't.

Julia A lute-string far exceeds it:
It hath no smell, like cassia or civet;
Nor is it physical, though some fond doctors
Persuade us see the 't in cullises. I'll tell you,
This is a creature bred by -

Re-enter SERVANT

Servant Your husband's come,
Hath deliver'd a letter to the Duke of Calabria
That, to my thinking, hath put him out of his wits.

Exit.

Julia Sir, you hear;
Pray, let me know your business and your suit
As briefly as can be.

Delio With good speed: I would wish you,
At such time as you are non-resident
With your husband, my mistress.

Julia Sir, I'll go ask my husband if I shall,
And straight return your answer.

Exit.

Delio Very fine!

Is this her wit, or honesty, that speaks thus?

I heard one say the duke was highly mov'd

With a letter sent from Malfi. I do fear

Antonio is betray'd: how fearfully

Shows his ambition now! unfortunate fortune!

They pass through whirlpools, and deep woes do shun,

Who the event weigh ere the action's done.

Exit.

Scene 5

Enter CARDINAL, and FERDINAND with a letter

Ferdinand I have this night digg'd up a mandrake.

Cardinal Say you?

Ferdinand And I am grown mad with 't.

Cardinal What's the prodigy?

Ferdinand Read there, - a sister damn'd: she's loose i' the hilts;
Grown a notorious strumpet.

Cardinal Speak lower.

Ferdinand Lower!

Rogues do not whisper 't now, but seek to publish 't

(As servants do the bounty of their lords)

Aloud; and with a covetous searching eye,

To mark who note them. Oh, confusion seize her!

She hath had most cunning bawds to serve her turn,

And more secure conveyances for lust

Than towns of garrison for service.

Cardinal Is 't possible?

Can this be certain?

Ferdinand Rhubarb, oh, for rhubarb

To purge this choler! here's the cursed day

To prompt my memory; and here 't shall stick

Till of her bleeding heart I make a sponge

To wipe it out.

Cardinal Why do you make yourself

So wild a tempest?

Ferdinand Would I could be one,
That I might toss her palace 'bout her ears,
Root up her goodly forests, blast her meads,
And lay her general territory as waste
As she hath done her honours.

Cardinal Shall our blood,
The royal blood of Arragon and Castile,
Be thus attainted?

Ferdinand Apply desperate physic:
We must not now use balsamum, but fire,
The smarting cupping-glass, for that's the mean
To purge infected blood, such blood as hers.
There is a kind of pity in mine eye, -
I'll give it to my handkercher; and now 'tis here,
I'll bequeath this to her bastard.

Cardinal What to do?

Ferdinand Why, to make soft lint for his mother's wounds,
When I have hew'd her to pieces.

Cardinal Cursed creature!
Unequal nature, to place women's hearts
So far upon the left side!

Ferdinand Foolish men,
That e'er will trust their honour in a bark
Made of so slight weak bulrush as is woman,
Apt every minute to sink it!

Cardinal Thus
Ignorance, when it hath purchas'd honour,
It cannot wield it.

Ferdinand Methinks I see her laughing, -
Excellent hyena! Talk to me somewhat quickly,
Or my imagination will carry me
To see her in the shameful act of sin.

Cardinal With whom?

Ferdinand Happily with some strong-thigh'd bargeman,
Or one o' the wood-yard that can quoit the sledge
Or toss the bar, or else some lovely squire
That carries coals up to her privy lodgings.

Cardinal You fly beyond your reason.

Ferdinand Go to, mistress!
'Tis not your whore's milk that shall quench my wild fire,
But your whore's blood.

Cardinal How idly shows this rage, which carries you,
As men convey'd by witches through the air,
On violent whirlwinds! this intemperate noise
Fitly resembles deaf men's shrill discourse,
Who talk aloud, thinking all other men
To have their imperfection.

Ferdinand Have not you
My palsy?

Cardinal Yes, [but] I can be angry
Without this rupture: there is not in nature
A thing that makes man so deform'd, so beastly,
As doth intemperate anger. Chide yourself.
You have divers men who never yet express'd
Their strong desire of rest but by unrest,
By vexing of themselves. Come, put yourself
In tune.

Ferdinand So I will only study to seem
The thing I am not. I could kill her now,
In you, or in myself; for I do think
It is some sin in us heaven doth revenge
By her.

Cardinal Are you stark mad?

Ferdinand I would have their bodies
Burnt in a coal-pit with the vantage stopp'd.
That their curs'd smoke might not ascend to heaven;
Or dip the sheets they lie in in pitch or sulphur,
Wrap them in 't, and then light them like a match;
Or else to boil their bastard to a cullis,
And give 't his lecherous father to renew
The sin of his back.

Cardinal I'll leave you.

Ferdinand Nay, I have done.
I am confident, had I been damn'd in hell,
And should have heard of this, it would have put me
Into a cold sweat. In, in; I'll go sleep.
Till I know who leaps my sister, I'll not stir:
That known, I'll find scorpions to string my whips,

And fix her in a general eclipse.

Exeunt.

Act 3

Scene 1: A Room in the Palace of the Duchess

Enter ANTONIO and DELIO

Antonio Our noble friend, my most beloved Delio!
Oh, you have been a stranger long at court:
Came you along with the Lord Ferdinand?

Delio I did, sir: and how fares your noble duchess?

Antonio Right fortunately well: she's an excellent
Feeder of pedigrees; since you last saw her,
She hath had two children more, a son and daughter.

Delio Methinks 'twas yesterday: let me but wink,
And not behold your face, which to mine eye
Is somewhat leaner, verily I should dream
It were within this half-hour.

Antonio You have not been in law, friend Delio,
Nor in prison, nor a suitor at the court,
Nor begg'd the reversion of some great man's place,
Nor troubled with an old wife, which doth make
Your time so insensibly hasten.

Delio Pray, sir, tell me,
Hath not this news arriv'd yet to the ear
Of the lord cardinal?

Antonio I fear it hath:
The Lord Ferdinand, that's newly come to court,
Doth bear himself right dangerously.

Delio Pray, why?

Antonio He is so quiet that he seems to sleep
The tempest out, as dormice do in winter:
Those houses that are haunted are most still
Till the devil be up.

Delio What say the common people?

Antonio The common rabble do directly say
She is a strumpet.

Delio And your graver heads
Which would be politic, what censure they?

Antonio They do observe I grow to infinite purchase,
The left-hand way; and all suppose the duchess
Would amend it, if she could; for, say they,
Great princes, though they grudge their officers
Should have such large and unconfined means
To get wealth under them, will not complain,
Lest thereby they should make them odious
Unto the people: for other obligation
Of love or marriage between her and me
They never dream of.

Delio The Lord Ferdinand
Is going to bed.

Enter DUCHESS, FERDINAND, and ATTENDANTS

Ferdinand I'll instantly to bed,
For I am weary. - I am to bespeak
A husband for you.

Duchess For me, sir! pray, who is 't?

Ferdinand The great Count Malatesti.

Duchess Fie upon him!
A count! he's a mere stick of sugar-candy;
You may look quite thorough him. When I choose
A husband, I will marry for your honour.

Ferdinand You shall do well in 't. - How is 't, worthy Antonio?

Duchess But, sir, I am to have private conference with you
About a scandalous report is spread
Touching mine honour.

Ferdinand Let me be ever deaf to 't;
One of Pasquil's paper-bullets, court-calumny,
A pestilent air, which princes' palaces
Are seldom purg'd of. Yet say that it were true,
I pour it in your bosom, my fix'd love
Would strongly excuse, extenuate, nay, deny
Faults, were they apparent in you. Go, be safe
In your own innocency.

Duchess [Aside.] O bless'd comfort!
This deadly air is purg'd.

Exeunt DUCHESS, ANTONIO, DELIO, and ATTENDANTS.

Ferdinand Her guilt treads on Hot-burning coulters.

Enter Bosola.

Now, Bosola,
How thrives our intelligence?

Bosola Sir, uncertainly:
'Tis rumour'd she hath had three bastards, but
By whom we may go read i' the stars.

Ferdinand Why, some
Hold opinion all things are written there.

Bosola Yes, if we could find spectacles to read them.
I do suspect there hath been some sorcery
Us'd on the duchess.

Ferdinand Sorcery! to what purpose?

Bosola To make her dote on some desertless fellow
She shames to acknowledge.

Ferdinand Can your faith give way
To think there's power in potions or in charms,
To make us love whether we will or no?

Bosola Most certainly.

Ferdinand Away! these are mere gulleries, horrid things,
Invented by some cheating mountebanks
To abuse us. Do you think that herbs or charms
Can force the will? Some trials have been made
In this foolish practice, but the ingredients
Were lenitive poisons, such as are of force
To make the patient mad; and straight the witch
Swears by equivocation they are in love.
The witchcraft lies in her rank blood. This night
I will force confession from her. You told me
You had got, within these two days, a false key
Into her bed-chamber.

Bosola I have.

Ferdinand As I would wish.

Bosola What do you intend to do?

Ferdinand Can you guess?

Bosola No.

Ferdinand Do not ask, then:
He that can compass me, and know my drifts,
May say he hath put a girdle 'bout the world,
And sounded all her quicksands.

Bosola I do not Think so.

Ferdinand What do you think, then, pray?

Bosola That you are
Your own chronicle too much, and grossly
Flatter yourself.

Ferdinand Give me thy hand; I thank thee:
I never gave pension but to flatterers,
Till I entertained thee. Farewell.
That friend a great man's ruin strongly checks,
Who rails into his belief all his defects.

Exeunt.

Scene 2: The Bedchamber of the Duchess

Enter DUCHESS, ANTONIO, and CARIOLA

Duchess Bring me the casket hither, and the glass. -
You get no lodging here to-night, my lord.

Antonio Indeed, I must persuade one.

Duchess Very good:
I hope in time 'twill grow into a custom,
That noblemen shall come with cap and knee
To purchase a night's lodging of their wives.

Antonio I must lie here.

Duchess Must! you are a lord of misrule.

Antonio Indeed, my rule is only in the night.

Duchess To what use will you put me?

Antonio We'll sleep together.

Duchess Alas,
What pleasure can two lovers find in sleep!

Cariola My lord, I lie with her often; and I know
She'll much disquiet you.

Antonio See, you are complain'd of.

Cariola For she's the sprawling'st bedfellow.

Antonio I shall like her the better for that.

Cariola Sir, shall I ask you a question?

Antonio Ay, pray thee, Cariola.

Cariola Wherefore still, when you lie with my lady,
Do you rise so early?

Antonio Labouring men
Count the clock oftenest, Cariola,
Are glad when their task's ended.

Duchess I'll stop your mouth.

Kisses him

Antonio Nay, that's but one; Venus had two soft doves
To draw her chariot; I must have another. -

She kisses him again.

When wilt thou marry, Cariola?

Cariola Never, my lord.

Antonio Oh, fie upon this single life! forgo it.
We read how Daphne, for her peevish flight,
Became a fruitless bay-tree; Syrinx turn'd
To the pale empty reed; Anaxarete
Was frozen into marble: whereas those
Which married, or prov'd kind unto their friends,
Were by a gracious influence transhap'd
Into the olive, pomegranate, mulberry,
Became flowers, precious stones, or eminent stars.

Cariola This is a vain poetry: but I pray you, tell me,
If there were propos'd me, wisdom, riches, and beauty,
In three several young men, which should I choose.

Antonio 'Tis a hard question: this was Paris' case,

And he was blind in 't, and there was great cause;
For how was 't possible he could judge right,
Having three amorous goddesses in view,
And they stark naked? 'twas a motion
Were able to benight the apprehension
Of the severest counsellor of Europe.
Now I look on both your faces so well form'd,
It puts me in mind of a question I would ask.

Cariola What is 't?

Antonio I do wonder why hard-favour'd ladies,
For the most part, keep worse-favour'd waiting-women
To attend them, and cannot endure fair ones.

Duchess Oh, that's soon answer'd.
Did you ever in your life know an ill painter
Desire to have his dwelling next door to the shop
Of an excellent picture-maker? 'twould disgrace
His face-making, and undo him. I pray thee,
When were we so merry? - My hair tangles.

Antonio Pray thee, Cariola, let's steal forth the room,
And let her talk to herself: I have divers times
Serv'd her the like, when she hath chaf'd extremely.
I love to see her angry. Softly, Cariola.

Exeunt ANTONIO and CARIOLA.

Duchess Doth not the colour of my hair 'gin to change?
When I wax grey, I shall have all the court
Powder their hair with arras, to be like me.
You have cause to love me; I enter'd you into my heart
Before you would vouchsafe to call for the keys.

Enter FERDINAND behind.

We shall one day have my brothers take you napping:
Methinks his presence, being now in court,
Should make you keep your own bed; but you'll say
Love mix'd with fear is sweetest. I'll assure you,
You shall get no more children till my brothers
Consent to be your gossips. Have you lost your tongue?
'Tis welcome:
For know, whether I am doom'd to live or die,
I can do both like a prince.

Ferdinand Die, then, quickly!

Giving her a poniard.

Virtue, where art thou hid? what hideous thing
Is it that doth eclipse thee?

Duchess Pray, sir, hear me.

Ferdinand Or is it true thou art but a bare name,
And no essential thing?

Duchess Sir,

Ferdinand Do not speak.

Duchess No, sir:
I will plant my soul in mine ears, to hear you.

Ferdinand O most imperfect light of human reason,
That mak'st us so unhappy to foresee
What we can least prevent! Pursue thy wishes,
And glory in them: there's in shame no comfort
But to be past all bounds and sense of shame.

Duchess I pray, sir, hear me: I am married.

Ferdinand So!

Duchess Happily, not to your liking: but for that,
Alas, your shears do come untimely now
To clip the bird's wings that's already flown!
Will you see my husband?

Ferdinand Yes, if I could change
Eyes with a basilisk.

Duchess Sure, you came hither
By his confederacy.

Ferdinand The howling of a wolf
Is music to thee, screech-owl: prithee, peace. -
Whate'er thou art that hast enjoy'd my sister,
For I am sure thou hear'st me, for thine own sake
Let me not know thee. I came hither prepar'd
To work thy discovery; yet am now persuaded
It would beget such violent effects
As would damn us both. I would not for ten millions
I had beheld thee: therefore use all means
I never may have knowledge of thy name;
Enjoy thy lust still, and a wretched life,
On that condition. - And for thee, vile woman,
If thou do wish thy lecher may grow old
In thy embracements, I would have thee build

Such a room for him as our anchorites
To holier use inhabit. Let not the sun
Shine on him till he's dead; let dogs and monkeys
Only converse with him, and such dumb things
To whom nature denies use to sound his name;
Do not keep a paraquito, lest she learn it;
If thou do love him, cut out thine own tongue,
Lest it bewray him.

Duchess Why might not I marry?
I have not gone about in this to create
Any new world or custom.

Ferdinand Thou art undone;
And thou hast ta'en that massy sheet of lead
That hid thy husband's bones, and folded it
About my heart.

Duchess Mine bleeds for 't.

Ferdinand Thine! thy heart!
What should I name 't unless a hollow bullet
Fill'd with unquenchable wildfire?

Duchess You are in this
Too strict; and were you not my princely brother,
I would say, too wilful: my reputation
Is safe.

Ferdinand Dost thou know what reputation is?
I'll tell thee, - to small purpose, since the instruction
Comes now too late.
Upon a time Reputation, Love, and Death
Would travel o'er the world; and it was concluded
That they should part, and take three several ways.
Death told them, they should find him in great battles,
Or cities plagu'd with plagues: Love gives them counsel
To inquire for him 'mongst unambitious shepherds,
Where dowries were not talk'd of, and sometimes
'Mongst quiet kindred that had nothing left
By their dead parents: "Stay," quote Reputation.
"Do not forsake me; for it is my nature,
If once I part from any man I meet,
I am never found again." And so for you:
You have shook hands with Reputation,
And made him invisible. So, fare you well:
I will never see you more.

Duchess Why should only I,
Of all the other princes of the world,

Be cas'd up, like a holy relic? I have youth
And a little beauty.

Ferdinand So you have some virgins
That are witches. I will never see thee more.

Exit.

Re-enter ANTONIO with a pistol, and CARIOLA

Duchess You saw this apparition?

Antonio Yes: we are Betray'd. How came he hither? I should turn
This to thee, for that.

Cariola Pray, sir, do; and when
That you have cleft my heart, you shall read there
Mine innocence.

Duchess That gallery gave him entrance.

Antonio I would this terrible thing would come again,
That, standing on my guard, I might relate
My warrantable love. -

She shows the poniard.

Ha! what means this?

Duchess He left this with me.

Antonio And it seems did wish
You would use it on yourself.

Duchess His action
Seem'd to intend so much.

Antonio This hath a handle to 't,
As well as a point: turn it towards him,
And so fasten the keen edge in his rank gall.

Knocking within.

How now! who knocks? more earthquakes?

Duchess I stand
As if a mine beneath my feet were ready
To be blown up.

Cariola 'Tis Bosola.

Duchess Away!
O misery! methinks unjust actions
Should wear these masks and curtains, and not we.
You must instantly part hence: I have fashion'd it already.

Exit Antonio. Enter Bosola

Bosola The duke your brother is ta'en up in a whirlwind;
Hath took horse, and's rid post to Rome.

Duchess So late?

Bosola He told me, as he mounted into the saddle,
You were undone.

Duchess Indeed, I am very near it.

Bosola What's the matter?

Duchess Antonio, the master of our household,
Hath dealt so falsely with me in's accounts:
My brother stood engag'd with me for money
Ta'en up of certain Neapolitan Jews,
And Antonio lets the bonds be forfeit.

Bosola Strange! - [Aside.] This is cunning.

Duchess And hereupon
My brother's bills at Naples are protested
Against. - Call up our officers.

Bosola I shall.

Exit.

Re-enter ANTONIO

Duchess The place that you must fly to is Ancona:
Hire a house there; I'll send after you
My treasure and my jewels. Our weak safety
Runs upon ingenious wheels: short syllables
Must stand for periods. I must now accuse you
Of such a feigned crime as Tasso calls
Magnanima menzogna, a noble lie,
'Cause it must shield our honours. - Hark! they are coming.

Re-enter BOSOLA and OFFICERS

Antonio Will your grace hear me?

Duchess I have got well by you: you have yielded me

A million of loss: I am like to inherit
The people's curses for your stewardship.
You had the trick in audit-time to be sick,
Till I had sign'd your quietus; and that cur'd you
Without help of a doctor. - Gentlemen,
I would have this man be an example to you all;
So shall you hold my favour; I pray, let him;
For h'as done that, alas, you would not think of,
And, because I intend to be rid of him,
I mean not to publish. - Use your fortune elsewhere.

Antonio I am strongly arm'd to brook my overthrow,
As commonly men bear with a hard year:
I will not blame the cause on 't; but do think
The necessity of my malevolent star
Procures this, not her humour. Oh, the inconstant
And rotten ground of service! you may see,
'Tis even like him, that in a winter night,
Takes a long slumber o'er a dying fire,
A-loath to part from 't; yet parts thence as cold
As when he first sat down.

Duchess We do confiscate,
Towards the satisfying of your accounts,
All that you have.

Antonio I am all yours; and 'tis very fit
All mine should be so.

Duchess So, sir, you have your pass.

Antonio You may see, gentlemen, what 'tis to serve
A prince with body and soul.

Exit.

Bosola Here's an example for extortion: what moisture is drawn out of the sea, when foul weather comes, pours down, and runs into the sea again.

Duchess I would know what are your opinions
Of this Antonio.

2nd Officer He could not abide to see a pig's head gaping: I thought your grace would find him a Jew.

3rd Officer I would you had been his officer, for your own sake.

4th Officer You would have had more money.

1st Officer He stopped his ears with black wool, and to those came to him for money said he was thick of hearing.

2nd Officer Some said he was an hermaphrodite, for he could not abide a woman.

4 Officer How scurvy proud he would look when the treasury was full! Well, let him go.

1st Officer Yes, and the chippings of the buttery fly after him, to scour his gold chain.

Duchess Leave us.

Exeunt Officers.

What do you think of these?

Bosola That these are rogues that in's prosperity,
But to have waited on his fortune, could have wish'd
His dirty stirrup riveted through their noses,
And follow'd after's mule, like a bear in a ring;
Would have prostituted their daughters to his lust;
Made their first-born intelligencers; thought none happy
But such as were born under his blest planet,
And wore his livery: and do these lice drop off now?
Well, never look to have the like again:
He hath left a sort of flattering rogues behind him;
Their doom must follow. Princes pay flatterers
In their own money: flatterers dissemble their vices,
And they dissemble their lies; that's justice.
Alas, poor gentleman!

Duchess Poor! he hath amply fill'd his coffers.

Bosola Sure, he was too honest. Pluto, the god of riches,
When he's sent by Jupiter to any man,
He goes limping, to signify that wealth
That comes on God's name comes slowly; but when he's sent
On the devil's errand, he rides post and comes in by scuttles.
Let me show you what a most unvalu'd jewel
You have in a wanton humour thrown away,
To bless the man shall find him. He was an excellent
Courtier and most faithful; a soldier that thought it
As beastly to know his own value too little
As devilish to acknowledge it too much.
Both his virtue and form deserv'd a far better fortune:
His discourse rather delighted to judge itself than show itself:
His breast was fill'd with all perfection,
And yet it seem'd a private whispering-room,
It made so little noise of 't.

Duchess But he was basely descended.

Bosola Will you make yourself a mercenary herald,
Rather to examine men's pedigrees than virtues?
You shall want him:
For know an honest statesman to a prince
Is like a cedar planted by a spring;
The spring bathes the tree's root, the grateful tree
Rewards it with his shadow: you have not done so.
I would sooner swim to the Bermoothes on
Two politicians' rotten bladders, tied
Together with an intelligencer's heart-string,
Than depend on so changeable a prince's favour.
Fare thee well, Antonio! since the malice of the world
Would needs down with thee, it cannot be said yet
That any ill happen'd unto thee, considering thy fall
Was accompanied with virtue.

Duchess Oh, you render me excellent music!

Bosola Say you?

Duchess This good one that you speak of is my husband.

Bosola Do I not dream? can this ambitious age
Have so much goodness in 't as to prefer
A man merely for worth, without these shadows
Of wealth and painted honours? possible?

Duchess I have had three children by him.

Bosola Fortunate lady!
For you have made your private nuptial bed
The humble and fair seminary of peace.
No question but many an unbenefic'd scholar
Shall pray for you for this deed, and rejoice
That some preferment in the world can yet
Arise from merit. The virgins of your land
That have no dowries shall hope your example
Will raise them to rich husbands. Should you want
Soldiers, 'twould make the very Turks and Moors
Turn Christians, and serve you for this act.
Last, the neglected poets of your time,
In honour of this trophy of a man,
Rais'd by that curious engine, your white hand,
Shall thank you, in your grave, for 't; and make that
More reverend than all the cabinets
Of living princes. For Antonio,
His fame shall likewise flow from many a pen,
When heralds shall want coats to sell to men.

Duchess As I taste comfort in this friendly speech,
So would I find concealment.

Bosola Oh, the secret of my prince,
Which I will wear on the inside of my heart!

Duchess You shall take charge of all my coin and jewels,
And follow him; for he retires himself
To Ancona.

Bosola So.

Duchess Whither, within few days,
I mean to follow thee.

Bosola Let me think:
I would wish your grace to feign a pilgrimage
To our Lady of Loretto, scarce seven leagues
From fair Ancona; so may you depart
Your country with more honour, and your flight
Will seem a princely progress, retaining
Your usual train about you.

Duchess Sir, your direction
Shall lead me by the hand.

Cariola In my opinion,
She were better progress to the baths at Lucca,
Or go visit the Spa
In Germany; for, if you will believe me,
I do not like this jesting with religion,
This feigned pilgrimage.

Duchess Thou art a superstitious fool:
Prepare us instantly for our departure.
Past sorrows, let us moderately lament them,
For those to come, seek wisely to prevent them.

Exeunt DUCHESS and CARIOLA.

Bosola A politician is the devil's quilted anvil;
He fashions all sins on him, and the blows
Are never heard: he may work in a lady's chamber,
As here for proof. What rests but I reveal
All to my lord? Oh, this base quality
Of intelligencer! why, every quality i' the world
Prefers but gain or commendation:
Now, for this act I am certain to be rais'd,
And men that paint weeds to the life are prais'd.

Exit.

Scene 3: A Room in the Cardinal's Palace at Rome

Enter CARDINAL, FERDINAND, MALATESTI, PESCARA, DELIO, and SILVIO

Cardinal Must we turn soldier, then?

Malatesti The emperor,
Hearing your worth that way, ere you attain'd
This reverend garment, joins you in commission
With the right fortunate soldier the Marquis of Pescara,
And the famous Lannoy.

Cardinal He that had the honour
Of taking the French king prisoner?

Malatesti The same.
Here's a plot drawn for a new fortification
At Naples.

Ferdinand This great Count Malatesti, I perceive,
Hath got employment?

Delio No employment, my lord;
A marginal note in the muster-book, that he is
A voluntary lord.

Ferdinand He's no soldier.

Delio He has worn gunpowder in's hollow tooth for the toothache.

Silvio He comes to the leaguer with a full intent
To eat fresh beef and garlic, means to stay
Till the scent be gone, and straight return to court.

Delio He hath read all the late service
As the City-Chronicle relates it;
And keeps two pewterers going, only to express
Battles in model.

Silvio Then he'll fight by the book.

Delio By the almanac, I think,
To choose good days and shun the critical;
That's his mistress' scarf.

Silvio Yes, he protests
He would do much for that taffeta.

Delio I think he would run away from a battle,
To save it from taking prisoner.

Silvio He is horribly afraid
Gunpowder will spoil the perfume on 't.

Delio I saw a Dutchman break his pate once
For calling him pot-gun; he made his head
Have a bore in 't like a musket.

Silvio I would he had made a touch-hole to 't.
He is indeed a guarded sumpter-cloth,
Only for the remove of the court.

Enter BOSOLA

Pescara Bosola arriv'd! what should be the business?
Some falling-out amongst the cardinals.
These factions amongst great men, they are like
Foxes, when their heads are divided,
They carry fire in their tails, and all the country
About them goes to wreck for 't.

Silvio What's that Bosola?

Delio I knew him in Padua, - a fantastical scholar, like such who study to know how many knots was in Hercules' club, of what colour Achilles' beard was, or whether Hector were not troubled with the toothache. He hath studied himself half blear-eyed to know the true symmetry of Caesar's nose by a shoeing-horn and this he did to gain the name of a speculative man.

Pescara Mark Prince Ferdinand:
A very salamander lives in's eye,
To mock the eager violence of fire.

Silvio That cardinal hath made more bad faces with his oppression than ever Michael Angelo made good ones: he lifts up's nose like a foul porpoise before a storm.

Pescara The Lord Ferdinand laughs.

Delio Like a deadly cannon
That lightens ere it smokes.

Pescara These are your true pangs of death,
The pangs of life, that struggle with great statesmen.

Delio In such a deformed silence witches whisper their charms.

Cardinal Doth she make religion her riding-hood

To keep her from the sun and tempest?

Ferdinand That,
That damns her. Methinks her fault and beauty,
Blended together, show like leprosy,
The whiter, the fouler. I make it a question
Whether her beggarly brats were ever christen'd.

Cardinal I will instantly solicit the state of Ancona
To have them banish'd.

Ferdinand You are for Loretto:
I shall not be at your ceremony; fare you well. -
Write to the Duke of Malfi, my young nephew
She had by her first husband, and acquaint him
With's mother's honesty.

Bosola I will.

Ferdinand Antonio!
A slave that only smell'd of ink and counters,
And never in's life look'd like a gentleman,
But in the audit-time. - Go, go presently,
Draw me out an hundred and fifty of our horse,
And meet me at the fort-bridge.

Exeunt.

Scene 4: The Shrine of Our Lady of Loretto

Enter Two Pilgrims

1st Pilgrim I have not seen a goodlier shrine than this;
Yet I have visited many.

2nd Pilgrim The Cardinal of Arragon
Is this day to resign his cardinal's hat:
His sister duchess likewise is arriv'd
To pay her vow of pilgrimage. I expect
A noble ceremony.

1st Pilgrim No question. - They come.

Here the ceremony of the Cardinal's instalment, in the habit of a soldier, performed in delivering up his cross, hat, robes, and ring, at the shrine, and investing him with sword, helmet, shield, and spurs; then Antonio, the Duchess, and their children, having presented themselves at the shrine, are, by a form of banishment in dumb-show expressed towards them by the Cardinal and the state of Ancona, banished: during all which ceremony, this ditty is sung, to very solemn music, by divers churchmen: and then exeunt all except the Two Pilgrims.

Arms and honours deck thy story,
To thy fame's eternal glory!
Adverse fortune ever fly thee;
No disastrous fate come nigh thee!

I alone will sing thy praises,
Whom to honour virtue raises;
And thy study, that divine is,
Bent to martial discipline is.
Lay aside all those robes lie by thee;
Crown thy arts with arms, they'll beautify thee.
O worthy of worthiest name, adorn'd in this manner,
Lead bravely thy forces on under war's warlike banner!
O mayst thou prove fortunate in all martial courses!
Guide thou still by skill in arts and forces!
Victory attend thee nigh, whilst fame sings loud thy powers;
Triumphant conquest crown thy head, and blessings pour down showers!

1st Pilgrim Here's a strange turn of state! who would have thought
So great a lady would have match'd herself
Unto so mean a person? yet the cardinal
Bears himself much too cruel.

2nd Pilgrim They are banish'd.

1st Pilgrim But I would ask what power hath this state
Of Ancona to determine of a free prince?

2nd Pilgrim They are a free state, sir, and her brother show'd
How that the Pope, fore-hearing of her looseness,
Hath seiz'd into the protection of the church
The dukedom which she held as dowager.

1st Pilgrim But by what justice?

2nd Pilgrim Sure, I think by none,
Only her brother's instigation.

1st Pilgrim What was it with such violence he took Off from her finger?

2nd Pilgrim 'Twas her wedding-ring;
Which he vow'd shortly he would sacrifice
To his revenge.

1st Pilgrim Alas, Antonio!
If that a man be thrust into a well,

No matter who sets hand to 't, his own weight
Will bring him sooner to the bottom. Come, let's hence.
Fortune makes this conclusion general,
All things do help the unhappy man to fall.

Exeunt.

Scene 5: Near Loretto

Enter DUCHESS, ANTONIO, CHILDREN, CARIOLA, and SERVANTS

Duchess Banish'd Ancona!

Antonio Yes, you see what power
Lightens in great men's breath.

Duchess Is all our train
Shrunk to this poor remainder?

Antonio These poor men,
Which have got little in your service, vow
To take your fortune: but your wiser buntings,
Now they are fledg'd, are gone.

Duchess They have done wisely.
This puts me in mind of death: physicians thus,
With their hands full of money, use to give o'er
Their patients.

Antonio Right the fashion of the world:
From decay'd fortunes every flatterer shrinks;
Men cease to build where the foundation sinks.

Duchess I had a very strange dream to-night.

Antonio What was 't?

Duchess Methought I wore my coronet of state,
And on a sudden all the diamonds
Were chang'd to pearls.

Antonio My interpretation
Is, you'll weep shortly; for to me the pearls
Do signify your tears.

Duchess The birds that live i' the field
On the wild benefit of nature live
Happier than we; for they may choose their mates,
And carol their sweet pleasures to the spring.

Enter BOSOLA with a letter

Bosola You are happily o'erta'en.

Duchess From my brother?

Bosola Yes, from the Lord Ferdinand your brother
All love and safety.

Duchess Thou dost blanch mischief,
Wouldst make it white. See, see, like to calm weather
At sea before a tempest, false hearts speak fair
To those they intend most mischief.

[Reads.]

"Send Antonio to me; I want his head in a business."

A politic equivocation!
He doth not want your counsel, but your head:
That is, he cannot sleep till you be dead.
And here's another pitfall that's strew'd o'er
With roses; mark it, 'tis a cunning one:

[Reads.]

"I stand engaged for your husband for several debts at Naples: let not that trouble him; I had rather have his heart than his money:" -

And I believe so too.

Bosola What do you believe?

Duchess That he so much distrusts my husband's love,
He will by no means believe his heart is with him
Until he see it: the devil is not cunning enough
To circumvent us in riddles.

Bosola Will you reject that noble and free league
Of amity and love which I present you?

Duchess Their league is like that of some politic kings,
Only to make themselves of strength and power
To be our after-ruin: tell them so.

Bosola And what from you?

Antonio Thus tell him; I will not come.

Bosola And what of this?

Antonio My brothers have dispers'd
Bloodhounds abroad; which till I hear are muzzled,

No truce, though hatch'd with ne'er such politic skill,
Is safe, that hangs upon our enemies' will.
I'll not come at them.

Bosola This proclaims your breeding:
Every small thing draws a base mind to fear,
As the adamant draws iron. Fare you well, sir:
You shall shortly hear from's.

Exit.

Duchess I suspect some ambush:
Therefore by all my love I do conjure you
To take your eldest son, and fly towards Milan.
Let us not venture all this poor remainder
In one unlucky bottom.

Antonio You counsel safely.
Best of my life, farewell, since we must part:
Heaven hath a hand in 't; but no otherwise
Than as some curious artist takes in sunder
A clock or watch, when it is out of frame,
To bring 't in better order.

Duchess I know not which is best,
To see you dead, or part with you. - Farewell, boy:
Thou art happy that thou hast not understanding
To know thy misery; for all our wit
And reading brings us to a truer sense
Of sorrow. - In the eternal church, sir,
I do hope we shall not part thus.

Antonio Oh, be of comfort!
Make patience a noble fortitude,
And think not how unkindly we are us'd:
Man, like to cassia, is prov'd best, being bruise'd.

Duchess Must I, like to a slave-born Russian
Account it praise to suffer tyranny?
And yet, O Heaven, thy heavy hand is in 't!
I have seen my little boy oft scourge his top
And compar'd myself to 't: naught made me e'er
Go right but heaven's scourge-stick.

Antonio Do not weep:
Heaven fashion'd us of nothing; and we strive
To bring ourselves to nothing. - Farewell, Cariola,
And thy sweet armful. - If I do never see thee more,
Be a good mother to your little ones,
And save them from the tiger: fare you well.

Duchess Let me look upon you once more, for that speech
Came from a dying father: your kiss is colder
Than that I have seen an holy anchorite
Give to a dead man's skull.

Antonio My heart is turn'd to a heavy lump of lead,
With which I sound my danger: fare you well.

Exeunt ANTONIO and his SON

Duchess My laurel is all wither'd.

Cariola Look, madam, what a troop of armed men
Make toward us.

Duchess Oh, they are very welcome:
When Fortune's wheel is overcharg'd with princes,
The weight makes it move swift: I would have my ruin
Be sudden.

Re-enter BOSOLA vizarded, with a GUARD.

I am your adventure, am I not?

Bosola You are: you must see your husband no more.

Duchess What devil art thou that counterfeit'st heaven's thunder?

Bosola Is that terrible? I would have you tell me whether
Is that note worse that frights the silly birds
Out of the corn, or that which doth allure them
To the nets? you have hearken'd to the last too much.

Duchess O misery! like to a rusty o'ercharg'd cannon,
Shall I never fly in pieces? - Come, to what prison?

Bosola To none.

Duchess Whither, then?

Bosola To your palace.

Duchess I have heard
That Charon's boat serves to convey all o'er
The dismal lake, but brings none back again.

Bosola Your brothers mean you safety and pity.

Duchess Pity!
With such a pity men preserve alive
Pheasants and quails, when they are not fat enough

To be eaten.

Bosola These are your children?

Duchess Yes.

Bosola Can they prattle?

Duchess No:
But I intend, since they were born accurs'd,
Curses shall be their first language.

Bosola Fie, madam!
Forget this base, low fellow, -

Duchess Were I a man,
I 'd beat that counterfeit face into thy other.

Bosola One of no birth.

Duchess Say that he was born mean,
Man is most happy when's own actions
Be arguments and examples of his virtue.

Bosola A barren, beggarly virtue.

Duchess I prithee, who is greatest? can you tell?
Sad tales befit my woe: I'll tell you one.
A salmon, as she swam unto the sea,
Met with a dog-fish, who encounters her
With this rough language: "Why art thou so bold
To mix thyself with our high state of floods,
Being no eminent courtier, but one
That for the calmest and fresh time o' the year
Dost live in shallow rivers, rank'st thyself
With silly smelts and shrimps? and darest thou
Pass by our dogship without reverence?"
"Oh," quoth the salmon, "sister, be at peace:
Thank Jupiter we both have pass'd the net!
Our value never can be truly known,
Till in the fisher's basket we be shown:
I' the market then my price may be the higher,
Even when I am nearest to the cook and fire."
So to great men the moral may be stretch'd;
Men oft are valu'd high, when they 're most wretch'd. -
But come, whither you please. I am arm'd 'gainst misery;
Bent to all sways of the oppressor's will:
There's no deep valley but near some great hill.

Exeunt.

Act 4

Scene 1: A Room in the Duchess's Palace at Malfi

Enter FERDINAND and BOSOLA

Ferdinand How doth our sister duchess bear herself
In her imprisonment?

Bosola Nobly: I'll describe her.
She's sad as one long us'd to 't, and she seems Rather to welcome the end of misery
Than shun it; a behaviour so noble
As gives a majesty to adversity:
You may discern the shape of loveliness
More perfect in her tears than in her smiles:
She will muse four hours together; and her silence,
Methinks, expresseth more than if she spake.

Ferdinand Her melancholy seems to be fortified
With a strange disdain.

Bosola 'Tis so; and this restraint,
Like English mastiffs that grow fierce with tying,
Makes her too passionately apprehend
Those pleasures she's kept from.

Ferdinand Curse upon her!
I will no longer study in the book
Of another's heart. Inform her what I told you.

Exit.

Enter DUCHESS

Bosola All comfort to your grace!

Duchess I will have none.
Pray thee, why dost thou wrap thy poison'd pills
In gold and sugar?

Bosola Your elder brother, the Lord Ferdinand,
Is come to visit you, and sends you word,
'Cause once he rashly made a solemn vow
Never to see you more, he comes i' the night;
And prays you gently neither torch nor taper
Shine in your chamber: he will kiss your hand,
And reconcile himself; but for his vow
He dares not see you.

Duchess At his pleasure. -
Take hence the lights. - He's come.

Enter FERDINAND

Ferdinand Where are you?

Duchess Here, sir.

Ferdinand This darkness suits you well.

Duchess I would ask you pardon.

Ferdinand You have it;
For I account it the honourabl'st revenge,
Where I may kill, to pardon. - Where are your cubs?

Duchess Whom?

Ferdinand Call them your children;
For though our national law distinguish bastards
From true legitimate issue, compassionate nature
Makes them all equal.

Duchess Do you visit me for this?
You violate a sacrament o' the Church
Shall make you howl in hell for 't.

Ferdinand It had been well,
Could you have liv'd thus always; for, indeed,
You were too much i' the light: - but no more;
I come to seal my peace with you. Here's a hand

Gives her a dead man's hand.

To which you have vow'd much love; the ring upon 't
You gave.

Duchess I affectionately kiss it

Ferdinand Pray, do, and bury the print of it in your heart.
I will leave this ring with you for a love token;
And the hand as sure as the ring; and do not doubt
But you shall have the heart too: when you need a friend,
Send it to him that own'd it; you shall see
Whether he can aid you.

Duchess You are very cold:
I fear you are not well after your travel. -
Ha! lights! - Oh, horrible!

Ferdinand Let her have lights enough.

Exit.

Duchess What witchcraft doth he practise, that he hath left
A dead man's hand here?

Here is discovered, behind a traverse, the artificial figures of Antonio and his children, appearing as if they were dead.

Bosola Look you, here's the piece from which 'twas ta'en.
He doth present you this sad spectacle,
That, now you know directly they are dead,
Hereafter you may wisely cease to grieve
For that which cannot be recovered.

Duchess There is not between heaven and earth one wish
I stay for after this: it wastes me more
Than were 't my picture, fashion'd out of wax,
Stuck with a magical needle, and then buried
In some foul dunghill; and yond's an excellent property
For a tyrant, which I would account mercy.

Bosola What's that?

Duchess If they would bind me to that lifeless trunk,
And let me freeze to death.

Bosola Come, you must live.

Duchess That's the greatest torture souls feel in hell,
In hell, that they must live, and cannot die.
Portia, I'll new kindle thy coals again,
And revive the rare and almost dead example
Of a loving wife.

Bosola Oh, fie! despair? remember
You are a Christian.

Duchess The Church enjoins fasting:
I'll starve myself to death.

Bosola Leave this vain sorrow.
Things being at the worst begin to mend: the bee
When he hath shot his sting into your hand,
May then play with your eyelid.

Duchess Good comfortable fellow,
Persuade a wretch that's broke upon the wheel
To have all his bones new set; entreat him live

To be executed again. Who must dispatch me?
I account this world a tedious theatre,
For I do play a part in 't 'gainst my will.

Bosola Come, be of comfort; I will save your life.

Duchess Indeed, I have not leisure to tend
So small a business.

Bosola Now, by my life, I pity you.

Duchess Thou art a fool, then,
To waste thy pity on a thing so wretched
As cannot pity itself. I am full of daggers.
Puff, let me blow these vipers from me.

Enter SERVANT.

What are you?

Servant One that wishes you long life.

Duchess I would thou wert hang'd for the horrible curse
Thou hast given me: I shall shortly grow one
Of the miracles of pity. I'll go pray;
No, I'll go curse.

Bosola Oh, fie!

Duchess I could curse the stars.

Bosola Oh, fearful!

Duchess And those three smiling seasons of the year
Into a Russian winter: nay, the world
To its first chaos.

Bosola Look you, the stars shine still.

Duchess Oh, but you must Remember, my curse hath a great way to go. -
Plagues, that make lanes through largest families,
Consume them! -

Bosola Fie, lady!

Duchess Let them, like tyrants,
Never be remember'd but for the ill they have done;
Let all the zealous prayers of mortified
Churchmen forget them! -

Bosola Oh, uncharitable!

Duchess Let heaven a little while cease crowning martyrs,
To punish them! -
Go, howl them this, and say, I long to bleed:
It is some mercy when men kill with speed.

Exit.

Re-enter FERDINAND

Ferdinand Excellent, as I would wish; she's plagu'd in art:
These presentations are but fram'd in wax
By the curious master in that quality,
Vincentio Lauriola, and she takes them
For true substantial bodies.

Bosola Why do you do this?

Ferdinand To bring her to despair.

Bosola Faith, end here,
And go no farther in your cruelty:
Send her a penitential garment to put on
Next to her delicate skin, and furnish her
With beads and prayer-books.

Ferdinand Damn her! that body of hers,
While that my blood ran pure in 't, was more worth
Than that which thou wouldst comfort, call'd a soul.
I will send her masks of common courtesans,
Have her meat serv'd up by bawds and ruffians,
And, 'cause she'll needs be mad, I am resolv'd
To remove forth the common hospital
All the mad folk, and place them near her lodging;
There let them practise together, sing and dance,
And act their gambols to the full o' the moon:
If she can sleep the better for it, let her.
Your work is almost ended.

Bosola Must I see her again?

Ferdinand Yes.

Bosola Never.

Ferdinand You must.

Bosola Never in mine own shape;
That's forfeited by my intelligence
And this last cruel lie: when you send me next,

The business shall be comfort.

Ferdinand Very likely;
Thy pity is nothing of kin to thee. Antonio
Lurks about Milan: thou shalt shortly thither,
To feed a fire as great as my revenge,
Which never will slack till it have spent his fuel:
Intemperate agues make physicians cruel.

Exeunt.

Scene 2: Another Room in the Duchess's Palace

Enter DUCHESS and CARIOLA

Duchess What hideous noise was that?

Cariola 'Tis the wild consort
Of madmen, lady, which your tyrant brother
Hath plac'd about your lodging: this tyranny,
I think, was never practis'd till this hour.

Duchess Indeed, I thank him: nothing but noise and folly
Can keep me in my right wits; whereas reason
And silence make me stark mad. Sit down;
Discourse to me some dismal tragedy.

Cariola Oh, 'twill increase your melancholy.

Duchess Thou art deceiv'd:
To hear of greater grief would lessen mine.
This is a prison?

Cariola Yes, but you shall live
To shake this durance off.

Duchess Thou art a fool:
The robin-redbreast and the nightingale
Never live long in cages.

Cariola Pray, dry your eyes.
What think you of, madam?

Duchess Of nothing;
When I muse thus, I sleep.

Cariola Like a madman, with your eyes open?

Duchess Dost thou think we shall know one another
In the other world?

Cariola Yes, out of question.

Duchess Oh, that it were possible we might
But hold some two days' conference with the dead!
From them I should learn somewhat, I am sure,
I never shall know here. I'll tell thee a miracle;
I am not mad yet, to my cause of sorrow:
The heaven o'er my head seems made of molten brass,
The earth of flaming sulphur, yet I am not mad.
I am acquainted with sad misery
As the tann'd galley-slave is with his oar;
Necessity makes me suffer constantly,
And custom makes it easy. Who do I look like now?

Cariola Like to your picture in the gallery,
A deal of life in show, but none in practice;
Or rather like some reverend monument
Whose ruins are even pitied.

Duchess Very proper;
And Fortune seems only to have her eyesight
To behold my tragedy. - How now!
What noise is that?

Enter SERVANT

Servant I am come to tell you
Your brother hath intended you some sport.
A great physician, when the Pope was sick
Of a deep melancholy, presented him
With several sorts of madmen, which wild object
Being full of change and sport, forc'd him to laugh,
And so the imposthume broke: the selfsame cure
The duke intends on you.

Duchess Let them come in.

Servant There's a mad lawyer; and a secular priest;
A doctor that hath forfeited his wits
By jealousy; an astrologian
That in his works said such a day o' the month
Should be the day of doom, and, failing of 't,
Ran mad; an English tailor craz'd in the brain
With the study of new fashions; a gentleman-usher
Quite beside himself with care to keep in mind
The number of his lady's salutations
Or "How do you" she employ'd him in each morning;
A farmer, too, an excellent knave in grain,
Mad 'cause he was hinder'd transportation:
And let one broker that's mad loose to these,

You 'd think the devil were among them.

Duchess Sit, Cariola. - Let them loose when you please,
For I am chain'd to endure all your tyranny.

Enter MADMEN

Here by a Madman this song is sung to a dismal kind of music.

Oh, let us howl some heavy note,
Some deadly dogged howl,
Sounding as from the threatening throat
Of beasts and fatal fowl!
As ravens, screech-owls, bulls, and bears,
We'll bell, and bawl our parts,
Till irksome noise have cloy'd your ears
And corrosiv'd your hearts.
At last, whenas our choir wants breath,
Our bodies being blest,
We'll sing, like swans, to welcome death,
And die in love and rest.

1st Madman Doomsday not come yet! I'll draw it nearer by a perspective, or make a glass that shall set all the world on fire upon an instant. I cannot sleep; my pillow is stuffed with a litter of porcupines.

2nd Madman Hell is a mere glass-house, where the devils are continually blowing up women's souls on hollow irons, and the fire never goes out.

3rd Madman I will lie with every woman in my parish the tenth night; I will tythe them over like hay-cocks.

4th Madman Shall my pothecary outgo me because I am a cuckold? I have found out his roguery; he makes allum of his wife's urine, and sells it to Puritans that have sore throats with over-straining.

1st Madman I have skill in heraldry.

2nd Madman Hast?

1st Madman You do give for your crest a woodcock's head with the brains picked out on 't; you are a very ancient gentleman.

3rd Madman Greek is turned Turk: we are only to be saved by the Helvetian translation.

1st Madman Come on, sir, I will lay the law to you.

2nd Madman Oh, rather lay a corrosive: the law will eat to the bone.

3rd Madman He that drinks but to satisfy nature is damned.

4th Madman If I had my glass here, I would show a sight should make all the women here call me mad doctor.

1st Madman What's he? a rope-maker?

2nd Madman No, no, no, a snuffling knave that, while he shows the tombs, will have his hand in a wench's placket.

3rd Madman Woe to the caroche that brought home my wife from the mask at three o'clock in the morning! it had a large feather-bed in it.

4th Madman I have pared the devil's nails forty times, roasted them in raven's eggs, and cured agues with them.

3rd Madman Get me three hundred milch-bats, to make possets to procure sleep.

4th Madman All the college may throw their caps at me: I have made a soap-boiler costive; it was my masterpiece.

Here the dance, consisting of Eight Madmen, with music answerable thereunto; after which, BOSOLA, like an old man, enters.

Duchess Is he mad too?

Servant Pray, question him. I'll leave you.

Exeunt SERVANT and MADMEN.

Bosola I am come to make thy tomb.

Duchess Ha! my tomb! Thou speak'st as if I lay upon my death-bed, Gasping for breath: dost thou perceive me sick?

Bosola Yes, and the more dangerously, since thy sickness is insensible.

Duchess Thou art not mad, sure: dost know me?

Bosola Yes.

Duchess Who am I?

Bosola Thou art a box of worm-seed, at best but a salvatory of green mummy. What's this flesh? a little crudded milk, fantastical puff-paste. Our bodies are weaker than those paper-prisons boys use to keep flies in; more contemptible, since ours is to preserve earthworms. Didst thou ever see a lark in a cage? Such is the soul in the body: this world is like her little turf of grass, and the heaven o'er our heads like her looking-glass, only gives us a miserable knowledge of the small compass of our prison.

Duchess Am not I thy duchess?

Bosola Thou art some great woman, sure, for riot begins to sit on thy forehead (clad in grey hairs) twenty years sooner than on a merry milkmaid's. Thou sleepest worse than if a mouse should be forced to take up her lodging in a cat's ear: a little infant that breeds its teeth, should it lie with thee, would cry out, as if thou wert the more unquiet bedfellow.

Duchess I am Duchess of Malfi still.

Bosola That makes thy sleeps so broken: Glories, like glow-worms, afar off shine bright, But, look'd to near, have neither heat nor light.

Duchess Thou art very plain.

Bosola My trade is to flatter the dead, not the living; I am a tomb-maker.

Duchess And thou comest to make my tomb?

Bosola Yes.

Duchess Let me be a little merry: of what stuff wilt thou make it?

Bosola Nay, resolve me first, of what fashion?

Duchess Why, do we grow fantastical in our death-bed? do we affect fashion in the grave?

Bosola Most ambitiously. Princes' images on their tombs do not lie, as they were wont, seeming to pray up to heaven; but with their hands under their cheeks, as if they died of the toothache: they are not carved with their eyes fixed upon the stars; but as their minds were wholly bent upon the world, the selfsame way they seem to turn their faces.

Duchess Let me know fully therefore the effect Of this thy dismal preparation, This talk fit for a charnel.

Bosola Now I shall: -

Enter EXECUTIONERS, with a coffin, cords, and a bell.

Here is a present from your princely brothers;
And may it arrive welcome, for it brings
Last benefit, last sorrow.

Duchess Let me see it: I have so much obedience in my blood, I wish it in their veins to do them good.

Bosola This is your last presence-chamber.

Cariola Oh, my sweet lady!

Duchess Peace; it affrights not me.

Bosola I am the common bellman,
That usually is sent to condemn'd persons
The night before they suffer.

Duchess Even now thou said'st
Thou wast a tomb-maker.

Bosola 'Twas to bring you
By degrees to mortification. Listen:

Hark, now everything is still,
The screech-owl and the whistler shrill
Call upon our dame aloud,
And bid her quickly don her shroud!
Much you had of land and rent;
Your length in clay's now competent:
A long war disturb'd your mind;
Here your perfect peace is sign'd.
Of what is 't fools make such vain keeping?
Sin their conception, their birth weeping,
Their life a general mist of error,
Their death a hideous storm of terror.
Strew your hair with powders sweet,
Don clean linen, bathe your feet,
And (the foul fiend more to check)
A crucifix let bless your neck:
'Tis now full tide 'tween night and day;
End your groan, and come away.

Cariola Hence, villains, tyrants, murderers! alas!
What will you do with my lady? - Call for help.

Duchess To whom? to our next neighbours? they are mad folks.

Bosola Remove that noise.

Duchess Farewell, Cariola.
In my last will I have not much to give:
A many hungry guests have fed upon me;
Thine will be a poor reversion.

Cariola I will die with her.

Duchess I pray thee, look thou giv'st my little boy
Some syrup for his cold, and let the girl
Say her prayers ere she sleep.

CAROLIA is forced out by the EXECUTIONERS.

Now what you please:
What death?

Bosola Strangling; here are your executioners.

Duchess I forgive them:
The apoplexy, catarrh, or cough o' the lungs,
Would do as much as they do.

Bosola Doth not death fright you?

Duchess Who would be afraid on 't,
Knowing to meet such excellent company
In the other world?

Bosola Yet, methinks,
The manner of your death should much afflict you:
This cord should terrify you.

Duchess Not a whit:
What would it pleasure me to have my throat cut
With diamonds? or to be smothered
With cassia? or to be shot to death with pearls?
I know death hath ten thousand several doors
For men to take their exits; and 'tis found
They go on such strange geometrical hinges,
You may open them both ways: any way, for heaven sake,
So I were out of your whispering. Tell my brothers
That I perceive death, now I am well awake,
Best gift is they can give or I can take.
I would fain put off my last woman's fault,
I 'd not be tedious to you.

1st Executioner We are ready.

Duchess Dispose my breath how please you; but my body
Bestow upon my women, will you?

1st Executioner Yes.

Duchess Pull, and pull strongly, for your able strength
Must pull down heaven upon me:
Yet stay; heaven gates are not so highly arch'd
As princes' palaces; they that enter there
Must go upon their knees. [Kneels.] - Come, violent death,
Serve for mandragora to make me sleep! -
Go tell my brothers, when I am laid out,
They then may feed in quiet.

The EXECUTIONERS strangle the DUCHESS.

Bosola Where's the waiting-woman?
Fetch her: some other strangle the children.

CARIOLA and CHILDREN are brought in by the EXECUTIONERS; who presently strangle the Children.

Look you, there sleeps your mistress.

Cariola Oh, you are damn'd
Perpetually for this! My turn is next;
Is 't not so order'd?

Bosola Yes, and I am glad
You are so well prepar'd for 't.

Cariola You are deceiv'd, sir,
I am not prepar'd for 't, I will not die;
I will first come to my answer, and know
How I have offended.

Bosola Come, dispatch her. -
You kept her counsel; now you shall keep ours.

Cariola I will not die, I must not; I am contracted
To a young gentleman.

1st Executioner Here's your wedding-ring.

Cariola Let me but speak with the duke; I'll discover
Treason to his person.

Bosola Delays: - throttle her.

1st Executioner She bites and scratches.

Cariola If you kill me now,
I am damn'd; I have not been at confession
This two years.

Bosola [To Executioners.] When?

Cariola I am quick with child.

Bosola Why, then,
Your credit's sav'd.

The EXECUTIONERS strangle CARIOLA.

Bear her into the next room;

Let these lie still.

Exeunt the EXECUTIONERS with the body of CARIOLA.

Enter FERDINAND

Ferdinand Is she dead?

Bosola She is what
You 'd have her. But here begin your pity:

Shows the Children strangled.

Alas, how have these offended?

Ferdinand The death
Of young wolves is never to be pitied.

Bosola Fix your eye here.

Ferdinand Constantly.

Bosola Do you not weep?
Other sins only speak; murder shrieks out:
The element of water moistens the earth,
But blood flies upwards and bedews the heavens.

Ferdinand Cover her face; mine eyes dazzle: she died young.

Bosola I think not so; her infelicity
Seem'd to have years too many.

Ferdinand She and I were twins;
And should I die this instant, I had liv'd
Her time to a minute.

Bosola It seems she was born first:
You have bloodily approv'd the ancient truth,
That kindred commonly do worse agree
Than remote strangers.

Ferdinand Let me see her face
Again. Why didst not thou pity her? what
An excellent honest man mightst thou have been,
If thou hadst borne her to some sanctuary!
Or, bold in a good cause, oppos'd thyself,
With thy advanced sword above thy head,
Between her innocence and my revenge!
I bade thee, when I was distracted of my wits,
Go kill my dearest friend, and thou hast done 't.

For let me but examine well the cause:
What was the meanness of her match to me?
Only I must confess I had a hope,
Had she continu'd widow, to have gain'd
An infinite mass of treasure by her death:
And what was the main cause? her marriage,
That drew a stream of gall quite through my heart.
For thee, as we observe in tragedies
That a good actor many times is curs'd
For playing a villain's part, I hate thee for 't,
And, for my sake, say, thou hast done much ill well.

Bosola Let me quicken your memory, for I perceive
You are falling into ingratitude: I challenge
The reward due to my service.

Ferdinand I 'll tell thee
What I'll give thee.

Bosola Do.

Ferdinand I'll give thee a pardon
For this murder.

Bosola Ha!

Ferdinand Yes, and 'tis
The largest bounty I can study to do thee.
By what authority didst thou execute
This bloody sentence?

Bosola By yours.

Ferdinand Mine! was I her judge?
Did any ceremonial form of law
Doom her to not-being? did a complete jury
Deliver her conviction up i' the court?
Where shalt thou find this judgment register'd,
Unless in hell? See, like a bloody fool,
Thou'st forfeited thy life, and thou shalt die for 't.

Bosola The office of justice is perverted quite
When one thief hangs another. Who shall dare
To reveal this?

Ferdinand Oh, I'll tell thee;
The wolf shall find her grave, and scrape it up,
Not to devour the corpse, but to discover
The horrid murder.

Bosola You, not I, shall quake for 't.

Ferdinand Leave me.

Bosola I will first receive my pension.

Ferdinand You are a villain.

Bosola When your ingratitude
Is judge, I am so.

Ferdinand Oh, horror,
That not the fear of him which binds the devils
Can prescribe man obedience! -
Never look upon me more.

Bosola Why, fare thee well.
Your brother and yourself are worthy men:
You have a pair of hearts are hollow graves,
Rotten, and rotting others; and your vengeance,
Like two chain'd bullets still goes arm in arm:
You may be brothers; for treason, like the plague,
Doth take much in a blood. I stand like one
That long hath ta'en a sweet and golden dream:
I am angry with myself, now that I wake.

Ferdinand Get thee into some unknown part o' the world,
That I may never see thee.

Bosola Let me know
Wherefore I should be thus neglected. Sir,
I serv'd your tyranny, and rather strove
To satisfy yourself than all the world:
And though I loath'd the evil, yet I lov'd
You that did counsel it; and rather sought
To appear a true servant than an honest man.

Ferdinand I'll go hunt the badger by owl-light:
'Tis a deed of darkness.

Exit.

Bosola He's much distracted. Off, my painted honour!
While with vain hopes our faculties we tire,
We seem to sweat in ice and freeze in fire.
What would I do, were this to do again?
I would not change my peace of conscience
For all the wealth of Europe. - She stirs; here's life:
Return, fair soul, from darkness, and lead mine
Out of this sensible hell: - she's warm, she breathes: -

Upon thy pale lips I will melt my heart,
To store them with fresh colour. - Who's there!
Some cordial drink! - Alas! I dare not call:
So pity would destroy pity. - Her eye opes,
And heaven in it seems to ope, that late was shut,
To take me up to mercy.

Duchess Antonio!

Bosola Yes, madam, he is living;
The dead bodies you saw were but feign'd statues:
He's reconcil'd to your brothers; the Pope hath wrought
The atonement.

Duchess Mercy!

Dies.

Bosola Oh, she's gone again! there the cords of life broke.
O sacred innocence, that sweetly sleeps
On turtles' feathers, whilst a guilty conscience
Is a black register wherein is writ
All our good deeds and bad, a perspective
That shows us hell! That we cannot be suffer'd
To do good when we have a mind to it!
This is manly sorrow;
These tears, I am very certain, never grew
In my mother's milk: my estate is sunk
Below the degree of fear: where were
These penitent fountains while she was living?
Oh, they were frozen up! Here is a sight
As direful to my soul as is the sword
Unto a wretch hath slain his father. Come,
I'll bear thee hence,
And execute thy last will; that's deliver
Thy body to the reverend dispose
Of some good women: that the cruel tyrant
Shall not deny me. Then I'll post to Milan,
Where somewhat I will speedily enact
Worth my dejection.

Exit.

Act 5

Scene 1: A Public Place in Milan

Enter ANTONIO and DELIO

Antonio What think you of my hope of reconciliation
To the Arragonian brethren?

Delio I misdoubt it;
For though they have sent their letters of safe-conduct
For your repair to Milan, they appear
But nets to entrap you. The Marquis of Pescara,
Under whom you hold certain land in cheat,
Much 'gainst his noble nature hath been mov'd
To seize those lands; and some of his dependants
Are at this instant making it their suit
To be invested in your revenues.
I cannot think they mean well to your life
That do deprive you of your means of life,
Your living.

Antonio You are still an heretic
To any safety I can shape myself.

Delio Here comes the marquis: I will make myself
Petitioner for some part of your land,
To know whither it is flying.

Antonio I pray, do.

Enter PESCARA

Delio Sir, I have a suit to you.

Pescara To me?

Delio An easy one:
There is the Citadel of Saint Bennet,
With some demesnes, of late in the possession
Of Antonio Bologna, - please you bestow them on me.

Pescara You are my friend; but this is such a suit,
Nor fit for me to give, nor you to take.

Delio No, sir?

Pescara I will give you ample reason for 't
Soon in private: - here's the cardinal's mistress.

Enter JULIA

Julia My lord, I am grown your poor petitioner,
And should be an ill beggar, had I not
A great man's letter here, the cardinal's,
To court you in my favour.

Gives a letter.

Pescara He entreats for you
The Citadel of Saint Bennet, that belong'd
To the banish'd Bologna.

Julia Yes.

Pescara I could not have thought of a friend I could rather Pleasure with it: 'tis yours.

Julia Sir, I thank you;
And he shall know how doubly I am engag'd
Both in your gift, and speediness of giving
Which makes your grant the greater.

Exit.

Antonio How they fortify
Themselves with my ruin!

Delio Sir, I am
Little bound to you.

Pescara Why?

Delio Because you denied this suit to me, and gave 't
To such a creature.

Pescara Do you know what it was?
It was Antonio's land; not forfeited
By course of law, but ravish'd from his throat
By the cardinal's entreaty: it were not fit
I should bestow so main a piece of wrong
Upon my friend; 'tis a gratification
Only due to a strumpet, for it is injustice.
Shall I sprinkle the pure blood of innocents
To make those followers I call my friends
Look ruddier upon me? I am glad
This land, ta'en from the owner by such wrong,
Returns again unto so foul an use
As salary for his lust. Learn, good Delio,
To ask noble things of me, and you shall find
I'll be a noble giver.

Delio You instruct me well.

Antonio Why, here's a man now would fright impudence
From sauciest beggars.

Pescara Prince Ferdinand's come to Milan,
Sick, as they give out, of an apoplexy;
But some say 'tis a frenzy; I am going
To visit him.

Exit.

Antonio 'Tis a noble old fellow.

Delio What course do you mean to take, Antonio?

Antonio This night I mean to venture all my fortune,
Which is no more than a poor lingering life,
To the cardinal's worst of malice: I have got Private access to his chamber; and intend
To visit him about the mid of night,
As once his brother did our noble duchess.
It may be that the sudden apprehension
Of danger, - for I'll go in mine own shape, -
When he shall see it fraught with love and duty,
May draw the poison out of him, and work
A friendly reconcilment: if it fail,
Yet it shall rid me of this infamous calling:
For better fall once than be ever falling.

Delio I'll second you in all danger; and, howe'er,
My life keeps rank with yours.

Antonio You are still my lov'd and best friend.

Exeunt.

Scene 2: A Gallery in the Cardinal's Palace at Milan

Enter PESCARA and DOCTOR

Pescara Now, doctor, may I visit your patient?

Doctor If 't please your lordship: but he's instantly
To take the air here in the gallery
By my direction.

Pescara Pray thee, what's his disease?

Doctor A very pestilent disease, my lord,
They call lycanthropia.

Pescara What's that?
I need a dictionary to 't.

Doctor I'll tell you.
In those that are possess'd with 't there o'erflows
Such melancholy humour they imagine
Themselves to be transformed into wolves;
Steal forth to churchyards in the dead of night,
And dig dead bodies up: as two nights since
One met the duke 'bout midnight in a lane
Behind Saint Mark's Church, with the leg of a man
Upon his shoulder; and he howl'd fearfully;
Said he was a wolf, only the difference
Was, a wolf's skin was hairy on the outside,
His on the inside; bade them take their swords,
Rip up his flesh, and try: straight I was sent for,
And, having minister'd to him, found his grace
Very well recover'd.

Pescara I am glad on 't.

Doctor Yet not without some fear
Of a relapse. If he grow to his fit again,
I'll go a nearer way to work with him
Than ever Paracelsus dream'd of; if They'll give me leave, I'll buffet his madness out of him.
Stand aside; he comes.

Enter FERDINAND, CARDINAL, MALATESTI, and BOSOLA

Ferdinand Leave me.

Malatesti Why doth your lordship love this solitariness?

Ferdinand Eagles commonly fly alone: they are crows, daws, and starlings that flock together. Look, what's that follows me?

Malatesti Nothing, my lord.

Ferdinand Yes.

Malatesti 'Tis your shadow.

Ferdinand Stay it; let it not haunt me.

Malatesti Impossible, if you move, and the sun shine.

Ferdinand I will throttle it.

Throws himself down on his shadow.

Malatesti Oh, my lord, you are angry with nothing.

Ferdinand You are a fool: how is 't possible I should catch my shadow, unless I fall upon 't? When I go to hell, I mean to carry a bribe; for, look you, good gifts evermore make way for the worst persons.

Pescara Rise, good my lord.

Ferdinand I am studying the art of patience.

Pescara 'Tis a noble virtue.

Ferdinand To drive six snails before me from this town to Moscow; neither use goad nor whip to them, but let them take their own time; - the patient'st man i' the world match me for an experiment; - and I'll crawl after like a sheep-biter.

Cardinal Force him up

They raise him.

Ferdinand Use me well, you were best. What I have done, I have done: I'll confess nothing.

Doctor Now let me come to him. - Are you mad, my lord? are you out of your princely wits?

Ferdinand What's he?

Pescara Your doctor.

Ferdinand Let me have his beard sawed off, and his eyebrows filed more civil.

Doctor I must do mad tricks with him, for that's the only way on 't. - I have brought your grace a salamander's skin to keep you from sun-burning.

Ferdinand I have cruel sore eyes.

Doctor The white of a cockatrix's egg is present remedy.

Ferdinand Let it be a new-laid one, you were best. - Hide me from him: physicians are like kings, - they brook no contradiction.

Doctor Now he begins to fear me: now let me alone with him.

Cardinal How now! put off your gown!

Doctor Let me have some forty urinals filled with rose water: he and I'll go pelt one another with them. - Now he begins to fear me. - Can you fetch a frisk, sir?-Let him go, let him go, upon my peril: I find by his eye he stands in awe of me; I'll make him as tame as a dormouse.

Ferdinand Can you fetch your frisks, sir! - I will stamp him into a cullis, flay off his skin, to cover one of the anatomies this rogue hath set i' the cold yonder in Barber-Chirurgeon's-hall. - Hence, hence! you are all of you like beasts for sacrifice: there's nothing left of you but tongue and belly, flattery and lechery.

Exit.

Pescara Doctor, he did not fear you throughly

Doctor True; I was somewhat too forward.

Bosola Mercy upon me, what a fatal judgment
Hath fall'n upon this Ferdinand!

Pescara Knows your grace
What accident hath brought unto the prince
This strange distraction?

Cardinal [Aside.] I must feign somewhat. - Thus they say it grew.
You have heard it rumour'd, for these many years
None of our family dies but there is seen
The shape of an old woman, which is given
By tradition to us to have been murder'd
By her nephews for her riches. Such a figure
One night, as the prince sat up late at's book,
Appear'd to him; when crying out for help,
The gentlemen of's chamber found his grace
All on a cold sweat, alter'd much in face
And language: since which apparition,
He hath grown worse and worse, and I much fear
He cannot live.

Bosola Sir, I would speak with you.

Pescara We'll leave your grace,
Wishing to the sick prince, our noble lord,
All health of mind and body.

Cardinal You are most welcome.

Exeunt PESCARA, MALATESTI, and DOCTOR.

Are you come? so. - [Aside.] This fellow must not know
By any means I had intelligence
In our duchess' death; for, though I counsell'd it,
The full of all the engagement seem'd to grow
From Ferdinand. - Now, sir, how fares our sister?
I do not think but sorrow makes her look

Like to an oft-dy'd garment: she shall now
Taste comfort from me. Why do you look so wildly?
Oh, the fortune of your master here the prince
Dejects you; but be you of happy comfort:
If you'll do one thing for me I'll entreat,
Though he had a cold tombstone o'er his bones,
I'd make you what you would be.

Bosola Anything;
Give it me in a breath, and let me fly to 't:
They that think long small expedition win,
For musing much o' the end cannot begin.

Enter JULIA

Julia Sir, will you come in to supper?

Cardinal I am busy; leave me.

Julia [Aside.] What an excellent shape hath that fellow!

Exit.

Cardinal 'Tis thus. Antonio lurks here in Milan:
Inquire him out, and kill him. While he lives,
Our sister cannot marry; and I have thought
Of an excellent match for her. Do this, and style me
Thy advancement.

Bosola But by what means shall I find him out?

Cardinal There is a gentleman call'd Delio
Here in the camp, that hath been long approv'd
His loyal friend. Set eye upon that fellow;
Follow him to mass; may be Antonio,
Although he do account religion
But a school-name, for fashion of the world
May accompany him; or else go inquire out
Delio's confessor, and see if you can bribe
Him to reveal it. There are a thousand ways
A man might find to trace him; as to know
What fellows haunt the Jews for taking up
Great sums of money, for sure he's in want;
Or else to go to the picture-makers, and learn
Who bought her picture lately: some of these Happily may take.

Bosola Well, I'll not freeze i' the business:
I would see that wretched thing, Antonio,
Above all sights i' the world.

Cardinal Do, and be happy.

Exit.

Bosola This fellow doth breed basilisks in's eyes,
He's nothing else but murder; yet he seems
Not to have notice of the duchess' death.
'Tis his cunning: I must follow his example;
There cannot be a surer way to trace
Than that of an old fox.

Re-enter JULIA

Julia So, sir, you are well met.

Bosola How now!

Julia Nay, the doors are fast enough:
Now, sir, I will make you confess your treachery.

Bosola Treachery!

Julia Yes, confess to me
Which of my women 'twas you hir'd to put
Love-powder into my drink?

Bosola Love-powder!

Julia Yes, when I was at Malfi.
Why should I fall in love with such a face else?
I have already suffer'd for thee so much pain,
The only remedy to do me good
Is to kill my longing.

Bosola Sure, your pistol holds
Nothing but perfumes or kissing-comfits.
Excellent lady!
You have a pretty way on 't to discover
Your longing. Come, come, I'll disarm you,
And arm you thus: yet this is wondrous strange.

Julia Compare thy form and my eyes together,
You'll find my love no such great miracle.
Now you'll say
I am wanton: this nice modesty in ladies
Is but a troublesome familiar
That haunts them.

Bosola Know you me, I am a blunt soldier.

Julia The better:
Sure, there wants fire where there are no lively sparks
Of roughness.

Bosola And I want compliment.

Julia Why, ignorance
In courtship cannot make you do amiss,
If you have a heart to do well.

Bosola You are very fair.

Julia Nay, if you lay beauty to my charge,
I must plead unguilty.

Bosola Your bright eyes
Carry a quiver of darts in them sharper
Than sunbeams.

Julia You will mar me with commendation,
Put yourself to the charge of courting me,
Whereas now I woo you.

Bosola [Aside.] I have it, I will work upon this creature. -
Let us grow most amorously familiar:
If the great cardinal now should see me thus,
Would he not count me a villain?

Julia No; he might count me a wanton,
Not lay a scruple of offence on you;
For if I see and steal a diamond,
The fault is not i' the stone, but in me the thief
That purloins it. I am sudden with you:
We that are great women of pleasure use to cut off
These uncertain wishes and unquiet longings,
And in an instant join the sweet delight
And the pretty excuse together. Had you been i' the street,
Under my chamber-window, even there
I should have courted you.

Bosola Oh, you are an excellent lady!

Julia Bid me do somewhat for you presently
To express I love you.

Bosola I will; and if you love me,
Fail not to effect it.
The cardinal is grown wondrous melancholy;
Demand the cause, let him not put you off
With feign'd excuse; discover the main ground on 't.

Julia Why would you know this?

Bosola I have depended on him,
And I hear that he is fall'n in some disgrace
With the emperor: if he be, like the mice
That forsake falling houses, I would shift
To other dependence.

Julia You shall not need
Follow the wars: I'll be your maintenance.

Bosola And I your loyal servant: but I cannot Leave my calling.

Julia Not leave an ungrateful
General for the love of a sweet lady!
You are like some cannot sleep in feather-beds,
But must have blocks for their pillows.

Bosola Will you do this?

Julia Cunningly.

Bosola To-morrow I'll expect the intelligence.

Julia To-morrow! get you into my cabinet;
You shall have it with you. Do not delay me,
No more than I do you: I am like one
That is condemn'd; I have my pardon promis'd,
But I would see it seal'd. Go, get you in:
You shall see me wind my tongue about his heart
Like a skein of silk.

Exit BOSOLA.
Re-enter CARDINAL

Cardinal Where are you?

Enter SERVANTS

Servant Here.

Cardinal Let none, upon your lives, have conference
With the Prince Ferdinand, unless I know it. -
[Aside.] In this distraction he may reveal
The murder.

Exeunt SERVANTS.

Yond's my lingering consumption:

I am weary of her, and by any means
Would be quit of.

Julia How now, my lord! what ails you?

Cardinal Nothing.

Julia Oh, you are much alter'd:
Come, I must be your secretary, and remove
This lead from off your bosom: what's the matter?

Cardinal I may not tell you.

Julia Are you so far in love with sorrow
You cannot part with part of it? or think you
I cannot love your grace when you are sad
As well as merry? or do you suspect
I, that have been a secret to your heart
These many winters, cannot be the same
Unto your tongue?

Cardinal Satisfy thy longing, -
The only way to make thee keep my counsel
Is, not to tell thee.

Julia Tell your echo this,
Or flatterers, that like echoes still report
What they hear though most imperfect, and not me;
For if that you be true unto yourself,
I'll know.

Cardinal Will you rack me?

Julia No, judgment shall
Draw it from you: it is an equal fault,
To tell one's secrets unto all or none.

Cardinal The first argues folly.

Julia But the last tyranny.

Cardinal Very well: why, imagine I have committed
Some secret deed which I desire the world
May never hear of.

Julia Therefore may not I know it?
You have conceal'd for me as great a sin
As adultery. Sir, never was occasion
For perfect trial of my constancy
Till now: sir, I beseech you

Cardinal You'll repent it.

Julia Never.

Cardinal It hurries thee to ruin: I'll not tell thee.
Be well advis'd, and think what danger 'tis
To receive a prince's secrets: they that do,
Had need have their breasts hoop'd with adamant
To contain them. I pray thee, yet be satisfied;
Examine thine own frailty; 'tis more easy
To tie knots than unloose them: 'tis a secret
That, like a lingering poison, may chance lie
Spread in thy veins, and kill thee seven year hence.

Julia Now you dally with me.

Cardinal No more; thou shalt know it.
By my appointment the great Duchess of Malfi
And two of her young children, four nights since,
Were strangl'd.

Julia O heaven! sir, what have you done!

Cardinal How now? how settles this? think you your bosom
Will be a grave dark and obscure enough
For such a secret?

Julia You have undone yourself, sir.

Cardinal Why?

Julia It lies not in me to conceal it.

Cardinal No?
Come, I will swear you to 't upon this book.

Julia Most religiously.

Cardinal Kiss it.

She kisses the book.

Now you shall never utter it; thy curiosity
Hath undone thee: thou'rt poison'd with that book;
Because I knew thou couldst not keep my counsel,
I have bound thee to 't by death.

Re-enter BOSOLA

Bosola For pity sake, hold!

Cardinal Ha, Bosola!

Julia I forgive you
This equal piece of justice you have done;
For I betray'd your counsel to that fellow:
He overheard it; that was the cause I said
It lay not in me to conceal it.

Bosola Oh, foolish woman,
Couldst not thou have poison'd him?

Julia 'Tis weakness,
Too much to think what should have been done. I go,
I know not whither.

Dies.

Cardinal Wherefore com'st thou hither?

Bosola That I might find a great man like yourself,
Not out of his wits as the Lord Ferdinand,
To remember my service.

Cardinal I'll have thee hew'd in pieces.

Bosola Make not yourself such a promise of that life
Which is not yours to dispose of.

Cardinal Who plac'd thee here?

Bosola Her lust, as she intended.

Cardinal Very well:
Now you know me for your fellow-murderer.

Bosola And wherefore should you lay fair marble colours
Upon your rotten purposes to me?
Unless you imitate some that do plot great treasons,
And when they have done, go hide themselves i' the graves
Of those were actors in 't?

Cardinal No more; there is
A fortune attends thee.

Bosola Shall I go sue to Fortune any longer?
'Tis the fool's pilgrimage.

Cardinal I have honours in store for thee.

Bosola There are many ways that conduct to seeming honour,
And some of them very dirty ones.

Cardinal Throw to the devil
Thy melancholy. The fire burns well;
What need we keep a stirring of 't, and make
A greater smother? Thou wilt kill Antonio?

Bosola Yes.

Cardinal Take up that body.

Bosola I think I shall
Shortly grow the common bier for churchyards.

Cardinal I will allow thee some dozen of attendants
To aid thee in the murder.

Bosola Oh, by no means. Physicians that apply horse-leeches to any rank swelling use to cut off their tails, that the blood may run through them the faster: let me have no train when I go to shed blood, lest it make me have a greater when I ride to the gallows.

Cardinal Come to me after midnight, to help to remove
That body to her own lodging: I'll give out
She died o' the plague; 'twill breed the less inquiry
After her death.

Bosola Where's Castruccio her husband?

Cardinal He's rode to Naples, to take possession
Of Antonio's citadel.

Bosola Believe me, you have done a very happy turn.

Cardinal Fail not to come: there is the master-key
Of our lodgings; and by that you may conceive
What trust I plant in you.

Bosola You shall find me ready.

Exit CARDINAL

Oh, poor Antonio, though nothing be so needful
To thy estate as pity, yet I find
Nothing so dangerous! I must look to my footing:
In such slippery ice-pavements men had need
To be frost-nail'd well, they may break their necks else;
The precedent's here afore me. How this man
Bears up in blood! seems fearless! Why, 'tis well:
Security some men call the suburbs of hell,
Only a dead wall between. Well, good Antonio,
I'll seek thee out; and all my care shall be

To put thee into safety from the reach
Of these most cruel biters that have got
Some of thy blood already. It may be,
I'll join with thee in a most just revenge:
The weakest arm is strong enough that strikes
With the sword of justice. Still methinks the duchess
Haunts me: there, there! - 'Tis nothing but my melancholy.
O Penitence, let me truly taste thy cup,
That throws men down only to raise them up!

Exit.

Scene 3: A Fortification at Milan

Enter ANTONIO and DELIO

Delio Yond's the cardinal's window. This fortification
Grew from the ruins of an ancient abbey;
And to yond side o' the river lies a wall,
Piece of a cloister, which in my opinion
Gives the best echo that you ever heard,
So hollow and so dismal, and withal
So plain in the distinction of our words,
That many have suppos'd it is a spirit
That answers.

Antonio I do love these ancient ruins.
We never tread upon them but we set
Our foot upon some reverend history:
And, questionless, here in this open court,
Which now lies naked to the injuries
Of stormy weather, some men lie interr'd
Lov'd the church so well, and gave so largely to 't,
They thought it should have canopied their bones
Till doomsday; but all things have their end:
Churches and cities, which have diseases like to men,
Must have like death that we have.

Echo "Like death that we have."

Delio Now the echo hath caught you.

Antonio It groan'd, methought, and gave
A very deadly accent.

Echo "Deadly accent."

Delio I told you 'twas a pretty one: you may make it

A huntsman, or a falconer, a musician,
Or a thing of sorrow.

Echo "A thing of sorrow."

Antonio Ay, sure, that suits it best.

Echo "That suits it best."

Antonio 'Tis very like my wife's voice.

Echo "Ay, wife's voice."

Delio Come, let us walk farther from 't.
I would not have you go to the cardinal's to-night:
Do not.

Echo "Do not."

Delio Wisdom doth not more moderate wasting sorrow
Than time: take time for 't; be mindful of thy safety.

Echo "Be mindful of thy safety."

Antonio Necessity compels me:
Make scrutiny throughout the passages
Of your own life, you'll find it impossible
To fly your fate.

Echo "Oh, fly your fate!"

Delio Hark! the dead stones seem to have pity on you,
And give you good counsel.

Antonio Echo, I will not talk with thee,
For thou art a dead thing.

Echo "Thou art a dead thing."

Antonio My duchess is asleep now,
And her little ones, I hope, sweetly: O heaven,
Shall I never see her more?

Echo "Never see her more."

Antonio I mark'd not one repetition of the echo
But that; and on the sudden a clear light
Presented me a face folded in sorrow.

Delio Your fancy merely.

Antonio Come, I'll be out of this ague,
For to live thus is not indeed to live;
It is a mockery and abuse of life:
I will not henceforth save myself by halves:
Lose all, or nothing.

Delio Your own virtue save you!
I'll fetch your eldest son, and second you:
It may be that the sight of his own blood
Spread in so sweet a figure may beget
The more compassion. However, fare you well.
Though in our miseries Fortune have a part,
Yet in our noble sufferings she hath none:
Contempt of pain, that we may call our own.

Exeunt.

Scene 4: A Room in the Cardinal's Palace

Enter CARDINAL, PESCARA, MALATESTI, RODERIGO, and GRISOLAN

Cardinal You shall not watch to-night by the sick prince;
His grace is very well recover'd.

Malatesti Good my lord, suffer us.

Cardinal Oh, by no means;
The noise, and change of object in his eye,
Doth more distract him: I pray, all to bed;
And though you hear him in his violent fit,
Do not rise, I entreat you.

Pescara So, sir; we shall not.

Cardinal Nay, I must have you promise
Upon your honours, for I was enjoin'd to 't
By himself; and he seem'd to urge it sensibly.

Pescara Let our honours bind this trifle.

Cardinal Nor any of your followers.

Malatesti Neither.

Cardinal It may be, to make trial of your promise,
When he's asleep, myself will rise and feign
Some of his mad tricks, and cry out for help,
And feign myself in danger.

Malatesti If your throat were cutting,
I'd not come at you, now I have protested against it.

Cardinal Why, I thank you.

Grisolan 'Twas a foul storm to-night.

Roderigo The Lord Ferdinand's chamber shook like an osier.

Malatesti 'Twas nothing but pure kindness in the devil,
To rock his own child.

Exeunt all except the Cardinal.

Cardinal The reason why I would not suffer these
About my brother, is, because at midnight
I may with better privacy convey
Julia's body to her own lodging. Oh, my conscience!
I would pray now; but the devil takes away my heart
For having any confidence in prayer.
About this hour I appointed Bosola
To fetch the body: when he hath serv'd my turn,
He dies.

Exit.

Enter BOSOLA

Bosola Ha! 'twas the cardinal's voice? I heard him name
Bosola and my death. Listen: I hear one's footing.

Enter FERDINAND

Ferdinand Strangling is a very quiet death.

Bosola [Aside.] Nay, then, I see I must stand upon my guard.

Ferdinand What say [you] to that? whisper softly; do you agree to 't? So; it must be done i' the dark: the cardinal would not for a thousand pounds the doctor should see it.

Exit.

Bosola My death is plotted; here's the consequence of murder.
We value not desert nor Christian breath,
When we know black deeds must be cur'd with death.

Enter ANTONIO and SERVANT

Servant Here stay, sir, and be confident, I pray:
I'll fetch you a dark lantern.

Exit.

Antonio Could I take him at his prayers,
There were hope of pardon.

Bosola Fall right, my sword! -

Stabs him.

I'll not give thee so much leisure as to pray.

Antonio Oh, I am gone! Thou hast ended a long suit
In a minute.

Bosola What art thou?

Antonio A most wretched thing,
That only have thy benefit in death,
To appear myself.

Re-enter SERVANT with a lantern

Servant Where are you, sir?

Antonio Very near my home. - Bosola!

Servant Oh, misfortune!

Bosola Smother thy pity, thou art dead else. - Antonio!
The man I would have sav'd 'bove mine own life!
We are merely the stars' tennis-balls, struck and banded
Which way please them. Oh, good Antonio,
I'll whisper one thing in thy dying ear
Shall make thy heart break quickly! thy fair duchess
And two sweet children

Antonio Their very names
Kindle a little life in me.

Bosola Are murder'd.

Antonio Some men have wish'd to die
At the hearing of sad tidings; I am glad
That I shall do 't in sadness: I would not now
Wish my wounds balm'd nor heal'd, for I have no use
To put my life to. In all our quest of greatness,
Like wanton boys, whose pastime is their care,
We follow after bubbles blown in the air.
Pleasure of life, what is 't? only the good hours
Of an age; merely a preparative to rest,

To endure vexation. I do not ask
The process of my death; only commend me
To Delio.

Bosola Break, heart!

Antonio And let my son fly the courts of princes.

Dies.

Bosola Thou seem'st to have lov'd Antonio?

Servant I brought him hither,
To have reconcil'd him to the cardinal.

Bosola I do not ask thee that.
Take him up, if thou tender thine own life,
And bear him where the lady Julia
Was wont to lodge. - Oh, my fate moves swift!
I have this cardinal in the forge already;
Now I'll bring him to the hammer. O direful misprision!
I will not imitate things glorious,
No more than base; I'll be mine own example. -
On, on! and look thou represent, for silence,
The thing thou bear'st.

Exeunt.

Scene 5: Another Room in the Cardinal's Palace

Enter CARDINAL, with a book

Cardinal I am puzzled in a question about hell:
He says, in hell there's one material fire,
And yet it shall not burn all men alike.
Lay him by. How tedious is a guilty conscience!
When I look into the fish-ponds in my garden,
Methinks I see a thing arm'd with a rake,
That seems to strike at me.

Enter BOSOLA and SERVANT bearing Antonio's body.

Now, art thou come?
Thou look'st ghastly:
There sits in thy face some great determination
Mix'd with some fear.

Bosola Thus it lightens into action;
I am come to kill thee.

Cardinal Ha! - Help! our guard!

Bosola Thou art deceiv'd;
They are out of thy howling.

Cardinal Hold; and I will faithfully divide
Revenues with thee.

Bosola Thy prayers and proffers
Are both unseasonable.

Cardinal Raise the watch! we are betray'd!

Bosola I have confin'd your flight:
I'll suffer your retreat to Julia's chamber,
But no farther.

Cardinal Help! we are betray'd!

Enter, above, PESCARA, MALATESTI, RODERIGO, and GRISOLAN

Malatesti Listen.

Cardinal My dukedom for rescue!

Roderigo Fie upon his counterfeiting!

Malatesti Why, 'tis not the cardinal.

Roderigo Yes, yes, 'tis he:
But I'll see him hang'd ere I'll go down to him.

Cardinal Here's a plot upon me; I am assaulted! I am lost,
Unless some rescue!

Grisolan He doth this pretty well;
But it will not serve to laugh me out of mine honour.

Cardinal The sword's at my throat!

Roderigo You would not bawl so loud then.

Malatesti Come, come, let's go
To bed: he told us thus much aforehand.

Pescara He wish'd you should not come at him; but, believe 't,
The accent of the voice sounds not in jest:
I'll down to him, howsoever, and with engines
Force ope the doors.

Exit above.

Roderigo Let's follow him aloof,
And note how the cardinal will laugh at him.

Exeunt, above, MALATESTI, RODERIGO, and GRISOLAN.

Bosola There's for you first,
'Cause you shall not unbarricade the door
To let in rescue.

Kills the Servant.

Cardinal What cause hast thou to pursue my life?

Bosola Look there.

Cardinal Antonio!

Bosola Slain by my hand unwittingly.
Pray, and be sudden: when thou kill'd'st thy sister,
Thou took'st from Justice her most equal balance,
And left her naught but her sword.

Cardinal Oh, mercy!

Bosola Now it seems thy greatness was only outward;
For thou fall'st faster of thyself than calamity
Can drive thee. I'll not waste longer time; there!

Stabs him.

Cardinal Thou hast hurt me.

Bosola Again!

Stabs him again.

Cardinal Shall I die like a leveret,
Without any resistance? - Help! help! help!
I am slain!

Enter FERDINAND

Ferdinand The alarum! give me a fresh horse;
Rally the vaunt-guard, or the day is lost.
Yield, yield! I give you the honour of arms,
Shake my sword over you; will you yield?

Cardinal Help me; I am your brother!

Ferdinand The devil!
My brother fight upon the adverse party!

He wounds the CARDINAL, and, in the scuffle, gives BOSOLA his death-wound.

There flies your ransom.

Cardinal O justice!
I suffer now for what hath former bin:
Sorrow is held the eldest child of sin.

Ferdinand Now you 're brave fellows. Caesar's fortune was harder than Pompey's; Caesar died in the arms of prosperity, Pompey at the feet of disgrace. You both died in the field. The pain's nothing: pain many times is taken away with the apprehension of greater, as the toothache with the sight of a barber that comes to pull it out: there's philosophy for you.

Bosola Now my revenge is perfect. - Sink, thou main cause

Kills FERDINAND

Of my undoing! The last part of my life
Hath done me best service.

Ferdinand Give me some wet hay; I am broken-winded.
I do account this world but a dog-kennel:
I will vault credit and affect high pleasures
Beyond death.

Bosola He seems to come to himself,
Now he's so near the bottom.

Ferdinand My sister, O my sister! there's the cause on 't.
Whether we fall by ambition, blood, or lust,
Like diamonds, we are cut with our own dust.

Dies.

Cardinal Thou hast thy payment too.

Bosola Yes, I hold my weary soul in my teeth;
'Tis ready to part from me. I do glory
That thou, which stood'st like a huge pyramid
Begun upon a large and ample base,
Shalt end in a little point, a kind of nothing.

Enter, below, PESCARA, MALATESTI, RODERIGO, and GRISOLAN

Pescara How now, my lord!

Malatesti Oh, sad disaster!

Roderigo How comes this?

Bosola Revenge for the Duchess of Malfi murder'd
By the Arragonian brethren; for Antonio
Slain by this hand; for lustful Julia
Poison'd by this man; and lastly for myself,
That was an actor in the main of all
Much 'gainst mine own good nature, yet i' the end Neglected.

Pescara How now, my lord!

Cardinal Look to my brother:
He gave us these large wounds, as we were struggling
Here i' the rushes. And now, I pray, let me
Be laid by and never thought of.

Dies

Pescara How fatally, it seems, he did withstand
His own rescue!

Malatesti Thou wretched thing of blood,
How came Antonio by his death?

Bosola In a mist; I know not how:
Such a mistake as I have often seen
In a play. Oh, I am gone!
We are only like dead walls or vaulted graves,
That, ruin'd, yield no echo. Fare you well.
It may be pain, but no harm, to me to die
In so good a quarrel. Oh, this gloomy world!
In what a shadow, or deep pit of darkness,
Doth womanish and fearful mankind live!
Let worthy minds ne'er stagger in distrust
To suffer death or shame for what is just:
Mine is another voyage.

Dies.

Pescara The noble Delio, as I came to the palace,
Told me of Antonio's being here, and show'd me
A pretty gentleman, his son and heir.

Enter DELIO and Antonio's SON

Malatesti Oh, sir, you come too late!

Delio I heard so, and
Was arm'd for 't, ere I came. Let us make noble use
Of this great ruin; and join all our force
To establish this young hopeful gentleman

In's mother's right. These wretched eminent things
Leave no more fame behind 'em, than should one
Fall in a frost, and leave his print in snow;
As soon as the sun shines, it ever melts,
Both form and matter. I have ever thought
Nature doth nothing so great for great men
As when she's pleas'd to make them lords of truth:
Integrity of life is fame's best friend,
Which nobly, beyond death, shall crown the end.

Exeunt.
